Picture on Front Cover

The bottom of the picture represents the souls seeking help through the power of the Mass as depicted by the priest. The crucifix represents Calvary and the Stations of the Cross.

Our Lady requests that we celebrate the Holy Mass and the Stations of the Cross to help suffering souls along with other prayers.

On October 14th 1966, His Holiness Pope Paul VI confirmed the decree of the Sacred Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, under number 56/16 (A.A.S.), permitting the publication of writings concerning supernatural apparitions, even if they do not have a 'nihil obstat' from ecclesiastical authorities. The writer submits totally to the authority of the Catholic Church regarding all matters concerning this booklet.

Foreword

I am sure you will enjoy this booklet and that it will enlighten you on the love and activity of God in our lives today.

Larry's testimony of his own inner conversion to Jesus Christ is certainly enlightening. Instead of being a Catholic out of a sense of duty, the Holy Spirit has instructed and inspired him to understand the real meaning of a Catholic life, which is to have a personal relationship with the living God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. This is a relationship of love, friendship, listening to the word of God and doing His word, but it is above all a spirit of deep reverence for God breaking forth in deep adoration, praise and thanksgiving.

It is noteworthy to reflect that Larry's conversion drew him into an active Catholic life. Our Lady, Mother of Jesus and Mother of God became real to him as she is to all her children. All the teaching of the Church took on a living dimension for him and for all who come into a living faith in Jesus. The angels and the saints become our friends. Our Catholic belief in Purgatory becomes alive and we know that we must help those who are unable to help themselves. We become aware that there is a real spiritual struggle going on in our daily lives. We ourselves are part of that struggle. We too experience the power of the Evil One, but we also know that there is no need to be afraid for we are safe and secure in the hands of Jesus and our Mother Mary.

Larry's conversion to active life within the Church is also very enlightening. His life of personal prayer is evident in so many ways. He sees the Eucharist as the centre of all prayer and praise of God the Father. His conversion reawakened in him a real appreciation of the traditional practices of the Church such as active participation in the Holy Mass, in the reception of the Sacrament of Penance, in praying the Rosary, and in praying for the Dead.

Personally, I want to testify to Larry's deep love and respect for the Church. He has an extraordinary understanding of the necessity of the ordained ministry of Bishops and priests for the spiritual well-being of the People of God. His deep respect for the clergy is so self-evident.

St. Vincent Pallotti (1795-1850) the Founder of the Union of the Catholic Apostolate and the Society of the Catholic Apostolate was convinced that every baptised person is called by God to make Jesus Christ known and loved by others. Larry is doing this very effectively.

May the Lord Jesus guide you as you read.

Introduction - About Larry

I was born in the Bronx, New York USA, but my family moved back to Ireland when I was three. I am a semi-retired farmer living in the parish of Ballyragget, North Kilkenny with my wife Kathleen. I have two children, Noel and Eilish and in my immediate family I'm the oldest of twelve, the last dying shortly after birth.

My Conversion

In 1986 during a healing Mass I had a conversion and since then my life has been transformed. I have had many spiritual experiences, which continue to increase. By the power of the Holy Spirit, Our Lady guides me through an inner voice or inner locution. I have been given the gift of discernment to know peoples' concerns or problems, so they can be helped. Our Lady advises how much prayer is needed for a particular situation, e.g. Masses, Stations of the Cross, Rosaries and personal prayer.

The Reason For This Book

My main gift is to pray for the Holy Souls not at peace. I am also guided by Our Lady to pray for people in difficult or unexplainable situations, evil situations and the unbaptised. She has asked me to share these experiences with as many people as I can. That is the reason for this book and the website www.pleaseprayforus.com. The experiences that follow are only a brief selection of the hundreds of incidents that have happened since I first received my gifts.

Background - Purgatory and The Holy Souls

When someone dies, it is often assumed that their soul goes straight to heaven. In my experience, very few souls do. Some may spend hours in purgatory, others days or weeks and in other situations a long time. I have experience of people who were dead over 200 years and their souls were still not at peace.

The reason for this can be the result of something they did wrong in their lifetime, which they didn't get a chance to make up for before they died. As a result of this, their soul still has to make amends or make up for that wrongdoing. We are forgiven in confession. However it's one thing to be forgiven, but we then have to correct/compensate for the damage we have caused as a result of our sin. I often tell people, it's like a little boy kicking football who suddenly kicks it through his neighbour's window. He goes and tells them he is so sorry for what he has done. He may be forgiven, but the window still has to be repaired! And so it is the same with our souls.

The damage caused by sin has to be rectified, corrected or compensated for. Someone may have a lot of remorse or sorrow for something they did e.g. a murder, but because the damage was done, restitution has to be made through prayer, to compensate for their actions. The Lord is so merciful and no sin is too great to be forgiven.

Holy Souls are like young shoots on a plant in a window. They will always be facing the light. If you turn the plant around, a week later the buds will be facing towards the light again. Souls in Purgatory are like those young shoots, always yearning for the light, the light of heaven in the distance.

Souls can only be released from Purgatory through the prayer of those left on earth or through their own sufferings in Purgatory, which may take a long time, depending on the gravity of their situation. Holy Masses, The Stations of the Cross, The Divine Mercy and Rosaries are very powerful ways of bringing the souls closer to the light.

The souls that we pray for today will be us one day so it is essential to pray for them as it will benefit us later.

Later in this booklet you will see references to unbaptised or aborted babies who require prayer. However these babies are not in purgatory but are kept in a state of limbo when they die. Because they were conceived with original sin, they need our prayers. I am aware of situations where baptisms have been refused because the parents weren't practising their religion. There should be no excuse to prevent a child or person from being baptised. Everyone needs to be baptised, so they can be released back to God.

The church teaches or refers to three different levels of souls

1. Souls on Earth (church militant)

Souls striving through the ups and downs of every day life

2. Souls in Purgatory (church suffering)

Souls who are so dependent on our prayers for release

3. Souls in Heaven (church triumphant)

Souls who have reached heaven in triumph

A Vision of Purgatory

Denis O'Leary explains in his book 'Come, Let Us Adore Him' about a vision he had during adoration. He heard the sound of a crashing wave and then saw the churning foam coming towards him. The wave stopped and turned into a moving wall of water, which positioned itself between him and the monstrance. A huge rainbow appeared in the background, above the wave. He noticed he was standing on sand and behind him was an intense light, which he knew he couldn't possibly look upon. Then the monstrance rose and moved back until it reached the top of the rainbow. There it burst into flames of gold and sent beautiful beams of light out in all directions. It then moved down towards him and when it got closer gradually changed into the figure of Jesus. He described Jesus as wearing a flowing white robe that was tied at the waist by a long white girdle. Jesus then approached Denis on the sand. Jesus turned and was watching the activity within the wall. He showed Denis many souls within and some of them he happened to recognise. They were in great difficulty, struggling to come from the water to the sand in order to get to the light. They were being tossed and turned in the churning foam. He explains that it was easy to see them sometimes, while it became less clear at other times. They had expressions of great concern and longing on their faces and seemed to have a desire to reach the sand but were finding it so difficult. Denis was then raised up and was shown that the sea of foam was quite vast and that it stretched back for a great distance. There were many, many souls within this ocean. He was lowered on to the sand again and describes hearing beautiful singing and music all around. Many angels then appeared over the waves from under the rainbow. Each angel had a large ornate golden urn. They tilted the urns over the sea and beautiful crystal-like large drops of water poured out. A mixture of water droplets and droplets of blood fell from other urns and these seemed to look like rubies. A soul would move a little closer to the shore, as the water droplet fell on them. As the droplets of blood fell on a soul they would move much much closer. He mentioned that there was one struggling soul who was near the edge and as the blood dropped upon them they stopped struggling and with no difficulty passed through the wall and onto the sand. Then the choirs of angels raised their voices in joy. Jesus surrounded by lots of small children rushed to greet the soul. He threw His arm around the soul and He looked so, so happy. The children were showing their intense joy. The soul was awe-struck by the intense light. Jesus then turned them towards the huge radiance and directed them to go towards the light. The same scenario happened again as another soul reached the sand. Then some of the souls, who had gone towards the light, came back to Jesus. Each one had an urn that looked similar to the urns that the angels carried earlier. As these souls spoke with Jesus, he seemed to be offering a great blessing upon each word that they spoke. He raised His right hand in the air and pointed up over the great wall of water. Suddenly an angel swooped down and snatched up the urn carrying it over the waves and way down under the rainbow back to earth.

Denis explains that this vision lasted for over two hours. As the vision took place Jesus explained to him the significance of different aspects of what he was shown. The droplets of water represented the prayers that we on earth are offering for the poor souls in purgatory. The poor souls get great consolation from them. The drops of blood represent the Masses that we offer for these suffering souls. He then goes on to talk about the huge significance that a Mass has in bringing a soul towards the light of God.

The urns that the angels were bringing back towards earth represented the graces that the souls had obtained from the Father. The angels were now returning these blessings to the people who had prayed for those souls when in purgatory.

The visionaries in Medjugorje and numerous saints have had experience of hell, heaven and purgatory and the sufferings connected with the former. Maria Simma, an Austrian woman who died in 2004 had experiences of the Holy Souls in need of prayer for over 64 years.

Chapter 1 - My First Experiences

My First Spiritual Experience

Up to 1986, I was a habitual Catholic and only went to Mass through a sense of duty. I always went to Mass on a Sunday and never got anything spiritual from it, and found it boring if the Mass went on longer than normal. In April 1986 my cousin Liam asked me to go with him to a Healing Mission in St. John's Parish Church, Waterford. Monsignor Michael Buckley (a healing priest based in England) assisted by four other local priests celebrated it. At the consecration when the priest raised up the Eucharist, the priest seemed to me, to levitate about one metre off the floor behind the altar. He seemed to be elevated in the air holding the Eucharist between His fingers. At that moment, superimposed over him, was the outline of the figure of Jesus i.e. the Sacred Heart, which was larger than the priest. The host and the priest appeared to be in the middle of the image. The vision lasted a few seconds and it was in colour. I was instantly hit with a tremendous power in my chest and suddenly got a powerful urge to pray and huge desire to go to church. My whole life was transformed in five seconds.. I felt like St. Paul having been converted on the road to Damascus, but not as dramatic! He was struck blind and knocked off his horse. I didn't suffer that fate! It was the first time in my life that Mass meant anything to me and the celebration really became alive. Subsequent to this I began to wonder if the priests really understand what happens during the celebration at Mass and that Jesus is really ALIVE and that the Mass is a heavenly celebration where Jesus is truly present..

Since then, every time I got the opportunity I would go to Mass. I used to experience a flushing feeling in my right arm (as if the blood was being pumped under high pressure through the veins) at the offertory, and after the consecration it would cease. I found that when in the queue for Holy Communion, I would experience a power emanating out of the ciborium (which holds the Blessed Eucharist), and the nearer I'd get to the priest, the more intense it would become.

October 1996

Later that year, a group of us from the northern parishes in the diocese of Ossory organised for Monsignor Michael Buckley to come to Ballyragget, my parish church, to give a similar three day healing mission. With the permission of the parish priest Fr. Grant and the Bishop Laurence Forristal, the meeting was organised for Monday 21st October. There were five different sessions in the three days. We promoted it through local press, radio, handouts at churches etc and thousands came from all over Ireland. On the last evening the church was packed beyond seating capacity. There were approx 600 people outside the church who couldn't get in and even people in the sacristy listening through the intercom. Medical people and the Gardai were on standby also.

First Time To Be Affected By People With Problems.

I was one of several stewards in the church, supervising the event. Monsignor Buckley moved through the crowd after Mass blessing the people. He sometimes asked me to place my hand on them as he was praying with them. I noticed that I began to have reactions from people, especially those with physical problems. I would feel an unusual pulsating sensation, but I didn't know what it meant, and it didn't happen with everybody.

Near midnight on the last night of the mission, he had asked certain people in wheelchairs to stay behind, after everyone had left the church. He wanted to pray and talk to them. I assisted in helping them up on the altar with other stewards. Monsignor was speaking to a particular man in one of the wheelchairs and was able to tell him about different aspects of his life and I was amazed. I was kneeling behind this man on one knee with my hand on his shoulder. Then, all of a sudden, I found myself lying outstretched in front of the altar in pain, but conscious. Everyone was initially alarmed as they thought I had got a heart attack. The people around opened my shirt and took off my tie and were considering going for the doctor, but what I was experiencing I knew it wasn't the doctor I needed, but I couldn't tell them that. Something like this never happened to me or the people around me before. What I now know is that I was resting in the Spirit and I felt as if I was on the cross. I was experiencing a lot of pain and trauma. It's hard to explain, but I felt I was being pulled asunder. Someone put a coat under my head but it felt so uncomfortable that I asked that it be taken away. I wondered how I going to endure this all night in the church and they wouldn't be able to lock the doors! Monsignor Buckley had returned to his accommodation and there were only a few helpers and our parish priest Fr. Grant left at this stage. After sometime I began to come around and I was lifted up and put sitting on a chair. I was given a drink of water and I felt drained of energy after this whole experience.

First Time I Heard A Direction To Do Something

Fr. Grant then asked me if I'd go into his house at the back of the church and he'd make tea for me. I was linked into the house and I sat at the dining room table. While he was gone to make tea, I felt a heavy weight come over me and it got heavier and heavier, to such an extent that I couldn't bear any more. I heard a voice saying that the other people in the room (7 or 8) should stand behind me and pray. I can't remember if the voice was male or female, but it was my first time to be directed to pray in this manner. Various prayers were said and eventually some suggested praying the Rosary. In the meantime, Fr Grant came back with the tea and I couldn't drink it, I was under such stress. I suggested that he get Monsignor Buckley to pray with me. He and my cousin Liam went to him in another house in the town, but he wasn't able to come. The group continued praying the Rosary and when they came to the last decade, the load was getting lighter with every Hail Mary they prayed. When the last decade was finished I jumped up and said 'I'm Free'. The load was lifted. The tea was very welcome then! The voice later told me that I was carrying the weight of the mission.

First Experience Of Evil

Monsignor Buckley left Ballyragget on Thursday morning. We saw him off. Later that day at midday, Fr. Grant called to say that Monsignor had left his stole behind and to know if I'd collect it and get it to him somehow. He was to be in Mooncoin in South Kilkenny on Friday evening so we made arrangements to go there. On the way to collect the stole, I was to encounter my first experience of evil. As I was driving, the car was being forced off the road. First, I thought the front wheel had come off the car and was preparing to crash into a fence at a turn. It seemed to get around the turn OK and then a short time later something seemed to be forcing the car off the road, even though I was driving on a straight. I wasn't aware what was happening the first time, but became very aware what was happening the second time. I was very frightened. On my way back with the stole, the car seemed to float home and I had no problem, but I was a bit scared driving in the car on my own after that. I felt that I needed to have someone with me.

Image of Jesus Appears Before Me

That night (Thursday 24th October at approx 10pm), I had an experience just after getting into bed. My whole body started to heat up, as if I was sizzling and my heart beat so strongly I thought it was going to come out through the wall of my chest. Suddenly, as if like a film, a picture started to roll before me. First I saw clouds in the sky and then I could see the face of the crucified Jesus as if I was within two feet of him. I could see every aspect of His face in detail. That changed and I then saw the wound in the back of His right hand as if he was holding it across His chest. Each scene lasted approx 10 seconds in natural colour. At this stage, my body seemed to be on fire, I felt so hot, but it wasn't sore or burning. My body started to cool down again.

That Friday, in Mooncoin, after the mission, Monsignor called up a girl on crutches to the front of the altar. He asked us all to lay our hands on her as he prayed with her. As I put my hand on her, the right side of my body went numb as if it had no feeling. As soon as he stopped praying, my body returned to normal.

I told Monsignor Buckley what had been happening in my life in the previous few days. Monsignor mentioned that I was to share it with my family and said now you know what I go through!

The following day, Saturday 26th October, at about 3pm in the afternoon, I had a similar experience, after coming into the house, after it had started to rain outside. I sat down in the chair and again my body felt an intense heat as before and this time I saw the wound in His side very clearly. It looked moist. I then saw a drop of blood which kept increasing in size until it resembled a balloon. It started to disintegrate into smaller drops and those seemed to drop down in to what looked like a river. They seemed to float along the current of the river, which flowed from left to right, and there were hundreds of droplets. The vision then ceased and as before I started to cool down. I still don't know what the significance of this was.

A few days later, Kathleen, my wife, went to bring in the cows one morning for milking. They were only a short distance from the milking parlour, and no way would they come through the gateway out of the field. They wouldn't even move for the dog and were very familiar with coming this route continually. I became aware that an evil force was at work and I started to pray. Immediately the cows came through the gate.

On another morning, I went with the dog to feed the calves and as he approached the gate he seemed frightened. Every time he approached the gate to go through the bars, he would back off as if something in the gateway was blocking him. He did this a few times and eventually went off in another direction to get in to the field. Yet again I could sense there was evil at work.

All during this time, I felt I was supercharged with the Holy Spirit, or something I didn't understand and when I'd mention the word 'Jesus' something similar to a tingling / pulsating sensation would start in the top of my head and go down through my whole body to my feet. This lasted for about a week and each day it seemed to decrease in intensity till eventually it went totally. All this time I was continually praying, anytime I got the chance.

I so earnestly looked for guidance and somebody to share this with who would understand what I was going through, but there was no one around I could talk to. I felt alone with no one to turn to. It reminded me so much of the experience Mary had after she was told by the angel that she was to be the mother of the Redeemer. She couldn't wait to meet Elizabeth knowing that she had a similar experience and knowing that she was the only one who would understand.

Monsignor Buckley's Return Visit To Ireland In 1987

The following year, Monsignor Buckley returned to Co. Clare for a two-day mission in Kilkee. At the end of the mission he brought people in wheelchairs to the front of the altar. Monsignor Buckley prayed with each of them. I put my hand on one person to pray. I knelt on one knee in the aisle and when Monsignor finished praying, they all returned to their places and I was left on my knee in the middle of the floor. I couldn't get up. I was rooted to the floor and very embarrassed. When I asked the local parish priest to help me up, he laughed at me. He thought I was joking him! I couldn't move. "A hardy looking bloke like you", he said grinning. Eventually he did with the help of somebody else. I told him it was nothing to do with my physical strength; it was something spiritual, kept me there.

The Stations Of The Cross

Life continued on without any further experiences, only with a strong urge to pray, go to church and get Mass whenever possible. Being a dairy farmer, the farm required a lot of attention and Mass locally was at milking time. Nothing strange happened until the following Easter in 1987 in our local church. During the Stations of the Cross at 3pm, on Good Friday of that year, I had an unusual experience, which I don't wish to relate at this point in time.

Directions For My Own Life

I seemed to be spiritually filled all the time and had a great need to pray. I heard an inner voice give me directions for my own life of things I was to do and things I was to avoid. I was to use the Rosary Beads when praying the Rosary and not my fingers. I was to use the leaflets in church, to follow the Mass, so I'd be more focused on the ceremony, especially the scripture readings. Up to this point, I didn't have a lot of interest! I was to be honest in dealings of every type and to be more patient and understanding of other people and accept people as they are and their shortcomings. I began to see the animal world as part of God's creation and discovered that they worry and get hurt, just like humans. They need to be treated gently. I would also pick up pain from animals and the pain of loss especially at weaning time in the cattle world, or the fear when the vet would arrive at testing time.

During this time, I was shown things that had greatly affected me in my life. My past life was related to me through an inner voice. I began to understand how things and people had affected me e.g. if I had been treated badly or things people might have said to me that hurt me very much. As a result of these experiences, I didn't seem to have a lot of confidence in myself and things that I did. I could see this was true when it was pointed out to me. I was told about the part that my wife Kathleen played in my life and that she was a blessing in our house and looking back, she was and still is. I was told to tell her this. This lasted on and off over two to three days. I felt really blessed to be told all these things because now I understood and knew that I had been affected in the way that was told.

Gift Of Discernment - My First Gift

I began to get very physically affected by people who seemed to have problems. My whole body would feel stressed and muscles would become tense especially around my neck, but I would mostly feel it in my chest. Sometimes in a crowd I would get a vibe, wave or feeling that someone around me or even some distance away seemed to need help. Sometimes it could be three or four people at the same time, but in different directions. If I met somebody, there could be a burning sensation on the side of my body nearest to that person. I knew that these people had serious concerns or worries but didn't know what they were and this continued for about 18 months. Looking back, this was a lead up to the Gift of Discernment / Knowledge that would later develop fully.

First Trip To Medjugorje

In 1988 my brother-in-law Pat asked me to go to Medjugorje in former Yugoslavia. I was apprehensive about going because of the commitments I had on the farm and the availability of help. After a lot of persuasion I finally decided to go and 13 of us (mostly family connections) went at the end of June from London. We arrived out on the Tuesday evening before the 25th June (the anniversary of Our Lady appearing in Medjugorje). The following morning (Wednesday), while at Mass, a man got into the seat beside me. He was aged about 50, 6 ft tall, slim and wearing a tweed suit and hat to match. In the searing heat, he looked a bit out of place. At the handshake of peace I shook hands with him. As I caught his hand my right arm went dead. I was startled. This was my first experience of having met someone with a problem in Medjugorje. I didn't know what it meant. My arm came back to normal after about 10 minutes.

After Mass I was introduced to an American lady who was having refreshments with some members of our group. As it was our first day, we went to Mount Krezevac, Apparition Hill, and the Blue Cross etc where the pilgrims normally go.

That evening the church was packed to capacity for the anniversary of Our Lady's apparitions in Medjugorje. I was standing in the centre aisle along with other members of our group. During the ceremony I felt a huge weight as if a heavy plank was placed across my shoulders and I was under severe distress. It lasted for most of the ceremony. The people around me were aware of this also, including some of the local women. Everybody seemed to be spiritually touched and several people were crying including the locals. Every evening after that, the same experience occurred again, but not to the same intensity and I made sure that I got a seat to sit down at the evening ceremonies.

The following morning (Thursday) at the 7am Mass, while the priests were giving out Holy Communion, my brother-in-law Pat asked me if I could see anything in the back of the tabernacle. What I saw was the face of the crucified Jesus, which filled the back of the tabernacle. Around the edges was a shimmering light. We whispered to one another and he saw the same image or vision that I was seeing. After some time, this vision changed and I could then see what looked like the body of Jesus hanging on the cross, looking at it from the right hand side. It seemed to fit life size in the tabernacle, from the armpits down to a level with the hips. This continued until the priest put the sacred vessels back into the tabernacle and closed the door. During that day we visited the important places again, as we had done the previous day.

The First Soul To Be Helped

That evening we came back early for the evening ceremonies, possibly around 5pm. At that time, there was no seating outside the church and the Blessed Sacrament Church hadn't been built, no confessionals, just grass around the church, no buildings across the road, in front of the church, just temporary, canvas stalls. I was with my sister, Cecilia, and was reintroduced to the American lady whom I had met the previous morning. During the conversation, I asked her who she was with and she introduced me to her husband, who was nearby. I felt a sudden urge to put my arm around this man. I asked him, would he mind if I put my arm around him and he said 'not at all'. I was really embarrassed having to do this. As I did, he started praying out loud. We were in the middle of the road, in front of the church and there were a lot of people around. He continued praying for some time and eventually this urge lifted and I took my arm from around him. He turned to me immediately and said at the moment I had put my arm around him, he saw the image of Jesus on the Cross. I started to tell him about the experience I had at Mass that morning and we went to a café and continued the conversation over some refreshments.

We discussed our families and where we came from. They were from Florida in the US. He was a soldier in the US Army, based in Germany, a burly 42 year old. They had three sons and were concerned about one son, who had an addiction to drugs although they felt he had somewhat, come to terms with it. My sister Cecilia happened to mention that we had a cousin John in New York who had died as a result of drug abuse. He was a good-looking young man of 20, 6ft tall with blond hair. As soon as she mentioned his name, an immense pressure started to build on top of my head forcing me downward and eventually I was lying prostrate on the table where we were sitting. A loud voice shouted in my ear, Pray for John, Pray for John, Pray for John. There was a picture of fire (almost looked like a bush fire in Australia from the scenes on TV). The others caught hands and started to pray. After some time the weight lifted and the fire scene changed to an orange glow. I took it that John had been helped somewhat by our prayers, and this was the first time I was directed to pray for someone who was not on this earth.

(During the following few days, we kept meeting this couple and it became farcical, as every corner we turned, we kept bumping into each other, even with so many people being around.)

On Friday we went to Apparition Hill with Pat. On the way down the pathway through the fields, we encountered a local woman. She was approx. 60 years of age and was speaking to two boys aged 10 or 11 and some force was blocking me from passing her. When I'd get so far there seemed to be an invisible wall that I couldn't pass. I made three or four attempts to no avail. There was no way through even though there was space around her to pass. I felt that she was involved in an evil situation. We went back some distance to pray and after some short time, we approached her again, this time praying the prayer of protection to St. Michael the Archangel aloud. This time we succeeded without any problem. I made some enquiries and discovered where she lived and every time I passed her house I had to pray the same prayer before I came to it and while passing.

Everyday I could feel a tremendous spiritual power around the area and I was affected by a lot of people's problems, but didn't know what they were.

On the Saturday evening, I developed a severe sore throat and in a short time I couldn't eat. I had an awful night and sometimes I was afraid I would choke. I was taken to the medical centre in Citluk the following morning and again on Monday morning, where I was examined and given treatment. I wasn't able to eat any more solid meals and survived on orange drinks for the rest of the pilgrimage till I got back to London.

One of the group, Rosaleen, bought a bronze statue of Our Lady of Medjugorje. She had difficulty getting it from the shop owner initially as he said it was only a sample, but she eventually persuaded him. This was a present for my sister Kathleen who is married to Pat in London. We arrived back from the trip to Pat's house and we took out the presents. Rosaleen gave Kathleen the bronze statue, which she put in the middle of the table. Everyone was drawn to the statue as it was unusual to see a bronze statue of this size (about 12" high). As they were clearing off the table after the meal, I went to lift the statue out of the way and discovered I couldn't lift or move it as it was stuck rigidly in the same spot. That created a stir as everybody else was able to lift the statue except me. There was an invisible force preventing me. To this day, I still cannot lift the statue. I have a similar one of my own now, but I have to get someone else to carry it, if we bring it anywhere! That night I stayed in their house and Kathleen brought up the statue and put it on the locker beside my bed as she said I might need it! I couldn't understand why this was happening to me. In the morning I prayed the Rosary for direction and the message was that "Our Lady was carrying the weight of the world bringing souls to Her Son Jesus. Her outstretched left arm was beckoning souls to come to Her immaculate heart to be presented to Her Son, which She has Her right hand over and that I was going to be carrying some of this weight also". This concerned me, as I was unsure as to what lay ahead.

I continued to be affected by people's problems until the 12th August 1988 (ironically the feast of St. Laurence, the martyr). At 2pm on that day, the meaning of all these experiences was revealed to me. It was like a curtain had been pulled back. The problems of each person that I had been affected by during the previous 18 months became clear. There were many situations, and I was really amazed by these revelations, even problems belonging to local people, big and small. These revelations lasted for almost a week. I understood that I needed to pray for these problems. The experiences grew stronger and from then on each time it happened, I would know exactly what the problem was. I began to pick up situations from people who lived miles away and one occasion from someone in America who wasn't well and who I knew.

One morning after milking the cows I returned to our house. Outside the entrance to the house on the roadway was a note neatly folded on the ground. As I passed, I got a message, to pick up the note. I took it with me and opened it later. A Pat Bergin had left a message for the milkman as he was going on holidays with instructions as to when they needed milk again. The ironic thing was that Pat's address was 18 miles away from our house and no milkman from that area passed our way. I was physically affected by this note and the more I looked at it, a story started to unfold. There were different watermarks on the note and they seemed to relate to a series of disputes and marriage problems, which were drink related. I prayed about it and over a few days more of the story was revealed to me. I got a picture of a pretty woman looking through a window, almost in despair as to what to do. It seems that she had asked for prayer help as I saw further images of nuns in black habits kneeling and also nuns in brown habits (Poor Claires) praying for her. I waited until Pat came back from his holidays and found out where he worked. I rang him and arranged to meet him. I read out the note and he explained that it was his brother's handwriting. I asked him if anyone in the family had a marriage problem. He denied it. I continued with a series of questions, all of which he denied. Eventually he admitted that his brother Tim was having marriage problems. Our Lady said "Tim's immediate family have disowned him as a result of his drink problem. He needs their assistance and they need to pray for him." Pat and his other brother did visit Tim and gave him all the support that he needed and since then he has managed to come through his addiction to the extent that he now helps others.

The experiences continued in to 1989. My week in Medjugorje the previous year had a tremendous spiritual affect on me and I was anxious to get back there as soon as possible. I organised a pilgrimage of 50 people from the area to go again at the end of September that year.

One evening that May I was going into Mass and I experienced a presence in the avenue of our church about 30 metres from the front door. Our church is in the shape of a cross, in a rural village and the graveyard surrounds it like a horseshoe. The presence was 3 metres wide and seemed to be in a circle, with me standing in the middle of it. I stayed there for a few minutes, but didn't know what it meant. It didn't feel evil. I went into the church, and every time subsequently I encountered the same presence for weeks, even when my wife Kathleen was with me. One evening, when I arrived at the spot, an invisible beam shot from this spot across the graveyard. There was nothing to be seen; yet I could sense the direction it was going. It was like a beam of light, but I couldn't see it. I followed the direction of the beam and it rested on a name on a headstone. The man's name was Michael and he had died three years previously. I received a message to pray for this man. I said an Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be and the experience ceased. This was the second time I had been asked to pray for a soul. The next time I came to church, the presence in the avenue had gone, but the beam was still emanating from the same spot to the headstone, but to a lesser intensity. If there was no one around, I would go and pray at the grave as before and the experience would stop. This repeated every time I went to church and if there were people coming I would pray as I passed the grave and the beam would cease again.

About 2 weeks before I was due to go to Medjugorje, this experience became very powerful and the nearer it came to going on the pilgrimage the more intense it got. I felt I was to pray in Medjugorje for this man. When we arrived, I discussed this incident with my roommate, and he was startled at this, as he had known Michael very well. I asked him to pray for Michael during the pilgrimage and I would do the same. We had a great week spiritually. During this week I was given direction for something that was to be done in Medjugorje, which I can't mention here. I was also given direction for some members of our group to set up prayer groups when they returned to Ireland.

When I returned to Ireland, I went to the churchyard, which we live quite near and there was a great sense of peace around where Michael was buried.

Spiritual Director

Around this time, a few people had advised me that I should have a spiritual director. A nun recommended to me a certain priest I knew and I approached this man and he agreed. We used to meet in his house every so often and I would relate the various experiences I was having. Normally before we started, he would read a passage from the bible, and a great spiritual power would fill the room as he read this. I would experience this, but he wouldn't. He would ask me a lot of questions and likewise I would ask him a lot also. As time progressed, I felt that he wasn't on my wavelength, with no disrespect to this man, who is a very holy and great man. For some unknown reason, our meetings seemed to cease. Sometime later, I was about to start seeking another spiritual director and I didn't know where to turn or who to ask. I was becoming concerned about this but then suddenly received a direction. “I am your spiritual director and I am the one who has been giving you the directions, all this time. I am your Holy Mother, Mary”. I had often wondered who was giving me these directions. They were all authentic and to the point, but when I received this message from Our Lady I was really elated and absolutely flabbergasted to be told that she was the one directing me! I also have an 'earthly' spiritual director.

Our Lady directs me through the power of the Holy Spirit and this still continues. She speaks in the language that the receiver will understand even using colloquialisms or sayings that they would use. I will always know a few seconds before a message comes that it's on the way. It can happen anywhere e.g. at meal times, driving the car. Sometimes I may be directed to go into our house and that I will get a message at a certain time.

If the message is long, I will get it in parts and this could take about a quarter of an hour for the message to come through completely. I always have to pray to the Holy Spirit and Our Lady for guidance before any of these things happen.

List Of Souls Needing Prayer

About two days after coming back from Medjugorje, I was led to pray for another soul in our local churchyard. This person had been dead for over 40 years, and a few days later another soul from the graveyard was added. A few days later again, yet another soul was looking for help, also dead about 40 years. There were now 3 souls to pray for. We have land in front of the church so I would be down there regularly anyway. This time, there were beams or vibes coming from their graves and every time I passed the graveyard e.g. in the car or tractor, I could sense them. This continued for at least three months and I prayed for them everyday. At the end of that time, eventually one soul was at peace. A short while later the second soul was released to heaven and then the third. These were replaced a few days later by 5 new souls needing help, who were dead for 80-100 years. I started praying for these in the same way, saying the Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be and remembering them in the Rosary. The list started to increase from other souls buried in the local graveyard and it then began to extend if I went to a funeral in a neighbouring parish and I'd be led to pray for 4 or 5 in that graveyard. I would always go back and check out the names at a quieter time and at this stage I started to write the names down. That continued and I soon found myself being drawn to pray for more and more including names from the memorial columns of the local papers. Sometimes, even before I'd open the paper, I'd know that someone needed to be prayed for. I was now being led to where people were killed in road accidents and could sense this a few miles before I came to the actual spot where that person died.

Often when driving along the road, I would be drawn to the ruins of a house, where some soul who lived there needed help. I was drawn in so many different ways to pray for people e.g. TV. An actor might appear on screen and I'd be drawn to pray for them personally or someone deceased belonging to them. If someone had terminated their pregnancy, I would be drawn to have the baby baptised and to give that soul a name and to pray for them. I would organise for that to be looked after by an understanding priest or layperson I know. I was continually praying for these souls on my own and it kept increasing instead of decreasing.

At one stage the list grew to about 150. The annual pilgrimage to Knock was going from the parish that July, so I decided to go, even though I hadn't been there many times before. I planned to pray the Stations of the Cross for those souls when I got there and divide the 150 into 14 parts, one set for each Station. I carried this out, and discovered that all 150 souls were cleared. The list started to grow again and when it got to about 30 or 40 souls, I'd make a point of going to Knock to pray the Stations of the Cross for them and they would be released immediately. I went to Knock Shrine 7 times between July and December 1989. Every time I went, I'd pray the Stations of the Cross and other prayers also. This spiritual exercise seemed to be very rewarding, especially where the Holy Souls were concerned.

In 1879, Archdeacon Kavanagh, was parish priest in Knock. He had a great devotion, praying for the Holy Souls and celebrated a Novena of 100 Masses, which finished on 21st August 1879. That evening, Our Lady appeared on the gable end of the church along with St. John and St. Joseph. Most people are aware of this. I only became aware of Archdeacon Kavanagh's devotion to the Holy Souls much later. I was still being drawn in so many different ways to pray for souls, even to the graveyard overlooking Knock Shrine.

The minute I would arrive at the shrine in Knock, I would know instantly if I was to go to the graveyard or not. One particular day there were approx 42 souls that I was led to pray for, one after the other. I'd say an Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be for each one along with a Lord of Mercy for that name. That happened numerous times. I'd normally have someone with me, e.g. my wife Kathleen or sister.

One occasion, it was suggested to pray for all of them together, but I was told that the Lord doesn't work that way. Each soul is an individual. I have prayed for hundreds of souls in this manner at Knock. As of now, I'm drawn to the souls in the newer graveyard, No 3 and now and again, to some in the other graveyards, especially No 2.

Stations Of The Cross Became Alive!

There was continuing strong urgency to go to Knock and pray as much as possible for the Holy Souls, praying The Stations. Eventually Kathleen and myself decided to go for a weekend. On the Sunday morning before the 12 o'clock Mass in the Basilica, 21st July 1991, I prayed the Stations of the Cross in the grounds. When I came to the fourth Station, (Jesus Meets His Mother), the whole scene on Calvary became alive. There was great sorrow at this Station when they met and the sorrow was coming from where their hands touched. Obviously, Mary hadn't seen Jesus for some time and to see the state Her Son was in after the scourge and brutality, She was traumatised with sorrow and hurt. I could sense how everybody felt, e.g. Veronica, (her compassion), the soldiers (get on with the job, no compassion), the High Priests (making sure that the crucifixion would be carried out), Simon (the help he gave carrying the cross). I felt the areas of His body that had been most hurt by various falls and His shoulders with the cross and being goaded on by the handle of the spear. This continued for the rest of the Stations. I went to 12 o'clock Mass, and shared this with my wife when I came out. I was being drawn like a magnet to go back to the Station area, which I did and started off to say the Stations again. This time, the same experience started at the first Station.

1. Jesus Is Condemned to Death by Pilate

What I experience here is the inevitability of death and the sorrow, the hurt and the numbness that He feels at being condemned to death. All emotions are coming from the chest area of Jesus. He has been condemned to death innocently and without guilt. The muscular handler/soldier with the rope is determined to carry it out. The servant boy in the background washes the hands of Pilate. All seem to fit into the picture.

2. Jesus Carries His Cross

Jesus accepts the cross with His hands out meekly like the lamb at this Station. Again the same numbed feeling coming from the chest area of Jesus. I feel nothing from the other figures.

3. Jesus Falls the First Time

At this Station when Jesus falls, the unbelievable suffering coming from His two knees, the crown of thorns and the great suffering from the weight of the cross on His right shoulder is also strong. The high priest looks on in the background.

4. Jesus Meets His Mother Mary

Mary meets Her Son for the first time since he was arrested. The sorrow of Mary for Her Son supersedes all other sorrow or pain at this Station. It seems to come across more strongly from the area where their two hands meet and the meekness of Jesus as He catches Her hand seems to come across. Other figures look on.

5. Simon of Cyrene Helps Jesus Carry The Cross

What I experience at this Station is that Simon helps take about 80% of the weight of the cross off the shoulder of Jesus. There is no experience of pain here. Simon is behind Jesus, under the cross.

6. Veronica Wipes The Face Of Jesus

At this Station Veronica wipes the face of Jesus, Veronica being a cousin of Jesus in real life. What comes across is the great concern of Veronica for her cousin, seeing His terrible condition. The handler looks on in amazement as if to say, why should this woman wipe the face of a criminal.

7. Jesus Falls The Second Time

There is a great pain and suffering from where His hands hit the ground, from the crown of thorns and from the cross in line with and above His body. Great Suffering.

8. Jesus Speaks to the Women of Jerusalem

There is great sorrow and concern of the women for Jesus, seeing His terrible condition. Great sorrow comes from the woman kneeling who is obviously crying. There is great concern from the woman standing with the child. He said weep not for me but for yourselves and your children.

9. Jesus Falls the Third Time

Jesus was almost prostrate from suffering. At this Station there is great pain from His right arm, shoulder and elbow. The crown of thorns and the weight of the cross. He feels so bad at this stage from suffering he could die. The high priest points down at him with feeling 'get him up'.

10. Jesus is Stripped of His Garments

The great pain at the point where the clothes are torn from His body, because the garments had adhered to His congealed blood. This pain supersedes all pain, even the crown of thorns.

11. Jesus is Nailed to the Cross

All the pain comes from where the soldier drives the nail in to the right hand. It supersedes all other pain, up to this point.

12. Jesus Dies on the Cross

There is a great feeling of stillness and peace coming from the body of Jesus on the cross. All suffering is over, like after a battle. No reaction from any of the other figures. It's accomplished.

13. Jesus Is Taken Down From The Cross

Tremendous suffering from Mary on the death of Her Son as He is taken down by Nicodemus and friends. There is no reaction from any other figure, except the unbelievable sorrow of Mary.

14. Jesus is Laid in The Tomb

Great sorrow of Mary also comes across at this Station as Her Son is being laid in the tomb. No reaction from the other figures.

Eight of the Stations directly relate to Jesus and of the three falls on the way to Calvary, the third fall at the ninth Station, Jesus had the most suffering, as I experienced it. The Tenth Station where Jesus is stripped of His garments also stands out as painful. Because of the great number of flesh wounds from scourging, His clothes had adhered to His body because of the heat and sweat.

The area most affected is the actual point where the clothes are torn from His body. Three of the Stations relate to Mary. Her greatest sorrow was at the fourth Station where She met Her Son. One Station is devoted to Simon. What I felt here is that we are the Simons of the world and as we pray we lift the weight of suffering from Jesus. One Station is devoted to Veronica, and her great concern, and one Station is devoted to the women of Jerusalem, as already described.

I was given more direction about the 15th Station. It will be the same as the other Stations except with two figures. Jesus and Mary Magdalene. Jesus is gesturing with His left hand to go and tell the disciples. Mary Magdalene with long hair has her back facing out, partly looking toward Jesus. Tomb and clothes are in the background appearing in between the two figures.

Pray for Peace In Northern Ireland

Sometimes on weekend visits to Knock, Our Lady would request that I pray for her intentions for that day, which sometimes she would mention and sometimes not. On one day she requested that we pray all day long for peace in Northern Ireland. We did so and during the first peace negotiations, I was asked to pray for the negotiators, who were under great strain. There were similar experiences with other situations.

Suicides

My experiences seemed to diversify, and I was being led to pray for people who were suicidal. I might meet them in a shop, on the street, in a lounge bar / restaurant or on the road in lorries or cars. I would always be told the reason why. It could be due to family pressures, tax situations, depression, pressure at school or in the case of some young people, having no work. I wouldn't approach them, but I would pray and ask Our Lady to protect and help them. In some cases, I'd have to leave and go to pray in the car or elsewhere to be on my own. I remember my first experience of a suicide as a 3 year old in New York. One day looking out the window, I saw a man in black clothes getting out of a window at the other side of the street 5 stories up and jumping to his death. I remember the police and fire service putting a cover over him. Subsequently I would go to the window everyday out of curiosity expecting a repeat! Little did I know then what would happen in the years to come. I will highlight some of these experiences later in the book.

As time went on I became drawn to situations where other people were having unusual experiences like haunted houses, or unusual noises like knocking at doors and windows, but nobody there, doors opening and TV's turning on automatically. Some would have seen outlines of people, and others would have had very clear pictures, e.g. a detailed description of their hair style, dress, and in most cases I'd be able to tell the period from when these people lived. When we'd pray, the reason would be revealed. Sometimes, it could be the soul themselves needing help or they could be interceding for someone else. The Lord, through Our Lady, would be working through all these situations. It could have been where un-baptised babies were buried or a building on a bombed site where many people were killed and some weren't at peace. Sometimes a house could be built on a site where a tragedy happened and that situation wasn't resolved. There have been a few situations that have led back as far as the famine. Some people had food, but didn't share it with others who were less well off and who died as a result. These situations had repercussions on a few occasions.

Most messages are responses to individual requests. There have been a few general messages, i.e. to pray for peace in Iraq, months before the war actually started or as mentioned previously I was asked to pray for peace in Northern Ireland and for certain individuals who were involved in the peace process. When I was in Medjugorje in the early 1990's there were 80,000 people under siege in Sarajevo and I was requested to ask everyone to pray that the siege would cease. I did as she requested and it took another 3 months before this happened.

About this time I started attending a weekly prayer group locally. Charles, who was blessed with a gift of knowledge, would often attend also. Most nights he would give a 'word of knowledge' to a few people there, without knowing who the messages were for. One night he mentioned someone in the room would be filled with the Holy Spirit this night and would have it for the rest of their lives. I was immediately filled with a tremendous peace and knew the message was for me. This feeling lasted the whole nightlong and I felt really blessed.

A few years ago when I went to the local church to Mass or otherwise, the minute I'd enter, I would be drawn to the statue of Our Lady at the left hand side of the altar. I would experience a wave of energy coming to me from the statue. It continued for approx 8-9 months and I didn't know what it meant. One Sunday in November, just after I entered the church, I got a direction coming from her statue, which said, I want my statue painted. I didn't know how this was to be done, how it would be funded or who was to paint it! The statue was made of white chalk. There is also a statue of the Sacred Heart on the right hand side of the altar matching the other one. I prayed about it over a period of time and the message that I got was that she wanted both statues painted by the following Easter. She told me the colours to be used for her cloak, her garb etc. how the background was to be painted and also told me who I was to hire to paint it. She said the painter would know what to do with the Sacred Heart. I was also told it would cost £500 and that I was to pay for it but that she would look after me. I briefly mentioned this particular incident to a close friend, and they said 'they' would pay for it. Problem solved! I discussed it with the parish priest and all her directions were carried out. It was done by the following Easter and the cost was exactly what she mentioned.

In Medjugorje, June 2002, Our Lady told me that I was getting a new job. That November Jesus asked me during adoration to say the Divine Mercy every day at 3pm for the gifts that I was given and they would be increased 100 fold. Since then I have been drawn into more situations where evil is at work and prayers of exorcism and Masses are needed. I am also drawn to pray for unbaptised babies that would have died a long time ago. I would even be drawn to tell someone where the baby was buried, even a long way off and would be able to give a description of the area.

Also in November 2002, Our Lady asked me to pray for the Holy Souls in three separate groups. 1 Abandoned Souls, 2 Suicide, 3 Accidents and every day Our Lady asked for one of these groups to be prayed for and other groups as well.

I met Joanne in Medjugorje June 2003. She also has spiritual gifts and has a great gift of discernment and knowledge, which she has had all her life. When she prayed with me, she could see the flames of purgatory and there was water being poured on these flames. She told me that my prayers were the water being poured on the fire. Jesus told her that He has allowed His mother to give direction and to guide me. She could also confirm that I pray to the Blessed Trinity through Mary's intercession, which was true. There were other personal things, that she could tell me which were also true.

On 8th September (Our Lady's Feast Day) 2003 She asked me not to pray for the Holy Souls, but to pray for the sick instead on that day.

As I mentioned, Our Lady intercedes for us through Jesus. I met with someone recently and had prayed for a few situations, for which I had got answers. This person asked me for further directions and I asked Our Lady through praying the Hail Mary. ‘ Our Lady replied humorously ‘Give me time to intercede’!

Our All-Seeing Mother Knows What Is Best For Us

A local priest in Medjugorje told this story.

‘A young boy was playing in the kitchen, while the mother looked on. Sunlight hit the window and reflected off some sharp-edged knives on the table. The little boy found these very attractive and went to get them. The all-knowing mother noticed this and offered him some sweets instead. The little boy became agitated and wanted the knives. The mother gently insisted, that he would enjoy the sweets much more, as she understood that he would not be aware of the consequences or dangers that lay ahead.’

It is the same for us. If you ask Our Lady’s help, trust in the answer as she will be aware of the right and wrong actions we take. She will always give you something better than what you are looking for. People want for a lot of things, but maybe what they want is not what they need.

Chapter 2 - How the Holy Souls Have Looked For Help Through Me and Other People

Background - How To Recognise Souls Needing Help

We typically call them 'ghosts' but they are actually Souls needing help. In haunted houses or where there are places with unusual incidents, 99% of the time it is linked to souls that are not at peace and who have some connection with that place. There can often be an unusual coldness in a room, house or workplace. Loud knocking can be heard on windows or doors, often at night time. Most of the time the soul needing help would have had contact with the person or place when they were on earth. Articles in a house being moved, ornaments, flower pots or pictures falling off the wall, lights going on/off without any one near them. TV coming on with out anyone touching it. Sometimes an outline of a person would appear to somebody and would often repeat itself. They would be able to tell how they were dressed and their hairstyle, which would reveal the era they lived in, sometimes 100 years ago or more. Sometimes, the dog of the house would act unusually and couldn't be controlled. Other times a particular part of a road would be prone to unusual accidents. This could be the result of a tragedy e.g. a murder or otherwise that would have happened in that area, and the personnel involved still needing prayer. In most cases it's the victims interceding for prayer for the perpetrators of the tragedy. Generally the souls are asking for prayer for someone. However sometimes, souls have had their own requests e.g., like put up a headstone over a grave or have names engraved on an existing headstone.

Son appeared to his family after suicide

In May 2006 I got a call from Janet in London telling me that her nephew, who had committed suicide 7 weeks previously, had been continually appearing to his family from four days after his death. He was in his mid twenties. The family were distraught at this. I asked if it was possible to speak to her sister. That night her sister (the mother of the young man) phoned me from South Africa where they live. She said they could come in to the house and he could be sitting in a chair and her husband on one occasion asked him what he wanted. He replied "I am in a fog and I can't see". I told her that her son was looking for spiritual help and that he wasn't at peace. I advised the family to go to Mass as often as they could and to pray continuously for him. I told them that once they started praying for him, they probably wouldn't see him again and that's exactly what happened. This experience had a tremendous spiritual impact on the family.

Man Appearing In Picture

In October 2007, I got a phone call from Louise in Co. Meath. They had a family photo and her mother was in the front. Some weeks previous to that a young man in his 20's had appeared beside her mother in the photo. He was dressed in early 1900's style clothes and they all wondered how he mysteriously appeared in the picture. A few nights before Louise called me, her mother was woken in the middle of the night by a young man standing beside her bed. She instantly recognised him as the man in the photo. He revealed to her, that he was her uncle who was killed in World War I in France. She was aware of that, but didn't know him. He said he was killed getting out a trench when a bomb went off and half his face was blown off. She saw this too. Louise wanted to know why he had appeared. After they prayed about it, I was told that this young man was at peace, but he was interceding for 12 of his companions who committed an atrocity during the war and were still not at peace as a result. She was to have mass celebrated every month for 12 months for those young men and to pray for them too so that they would be at peace after all those years.

Man appeared on Football Pitch

Seamus and Billy had serious flooding on their local football pitch after heavy rain. They went to investigate the flooding and discovered that an outlet pipe was stopped. They fixed the problem and as they were leaving they approached the perimeter fence and a young man passed within a few feet of Billy but never spoke to him. Billy asked Seamus who he was and he replied that he didn't see anyone! They searched the area and the young man seemed to have disappeared. Billy contacted me and we prayed for direction. I was told it was a soul looking for prayer. He had committed suicide on a nearby railway over a failed relationship a few years before and was looking for prayer. Billy investigated this and he was able to confirm everything.

15 Year Old Girl Appearing for 19 Years..

In 2006 I got a call from John. His nephew Tom had told him that from the age of 5 a girl had been appearing to him. He was now 24 and over the years had mentioned her appearance to him. John asked Tom to ask her who she was or what she wanted? The next time she appeared Tom asked her and she remained silent but put her finger to her lips. I arranged to meet John and he told me she appeared to Tom aged about 15, fair hair to her shoulder wearing a smock dress. We prayed for direction and I was told that this girl was abused by someone. Tom was always curious as to who she was. We prayed through each previous generation and she lived 5 generations back from Tom. She was his great, great aunt and was interceding for her uncle who had abused her, 6 generations previous. The man was not at peace and needed to be forgiven on her behalf. A series of Masses and other prayers were to be celebrated.

Muslim Woman with Water Leak in Ceiling

In 2007, Karen was having a problem with a water leak in her house but plumbers couldn't find the source of the water even though they checked all pipes in the bathroom etc. To investigate they even took away part of the ceiling and no leak could be found. There was also an unusual bad feeling around the house. Karen was telling her catholic friend Anne about the situation and Anne contacted me. I asked them to pray for this and that Karen was to pray in her own way for an answer. I was directed through prayer that a mother who previously lived in the house in 1925 had drowned her two children in the bath. The children were interceding for their mother. Masses were to be offered for the mother who was still not at peace. Karen was to pray for this woman in her own way and Anne was to get the masses celebrated. That was agreed between them. The leaks have since stopped and there is now a great sense of peace around the house.

Cars across the road in Kilburn

Fr. Peter approached me in Medjugorje in June of 2007. Two years previous at 9.30 on at Saturday morning his doorbell rang. The caller asked if he knew anything of the two cars blocking the street and traffic outside. When he looked out, his car was one of the two. The evening before it had parked it in its parking space on the side of the street outside his house. It seemed to have been moved and was now parked perpendicular to the other cars jutting out into the street with another car in front of it, the whole street completely blocked. The police at this stage had arrived. A young man who was painting the house beside his came to him and said he heard the car starting and looked around to see that it had no driver. The car started slowly moving into the car in front and it proceeded to move it across the street completely blocking all traffic...something humanly impossible! The doors and steering in both cars were locked. There was another witness on the other side of the street. Fr Peter went to get the keys for his car to move it back in to position and when he put the keys in the door the alarm went off. He was able to move his car but the police had to physically move the other car with help off the street as they couldn't find the driver. I briefly prayed with him, and someone needed prayer. He prayed in the meantime, and the direction I got was a friend of his who had a drink problem. He was dead for 30 years and wasn't at peace. He knew who it was. He said he had a drink problem and a lot of other problems as well! I was able to confirm this. A series of prayers and masses were to be celebrated for him which he did.

Priest appearing on the altar

In April 2008, a man who looks after his local church in Co. Longford rang me. One evening he went in to lock up the church. As he came out of the sacristy, at the corner of his eye, he thought he saw a priest on the altar, yet he was alone. He ignored it and he continued to the back of the church to lock the doors and when he looked back up, there was a priest standing on the altar as if he was giving a blessing to a congregation. He was very clear to see and he was wearing a biretta. As he approached the altar, the vision started to fade and eventually disappeared. We prayed for direction and I was told that it was a priest who had died some years previous in this particular church. He had just given the last blessing of the Mass and suddenly dropped dead. This priest had been asked to say two masses but didn't get to celebrate them with his untimely death. The direction was to have the two masses completed.

Slippers

Aine lives alone and is a very organised person. In her new house everything is normally in its place. One morning she got up and discovered that some of the photographs hanging in her hall had tilted. She knew something strange had happened but wasn't concerned, as she didn't get any bad feeling. She fixed the pictures to their original position but a few days later they had tilted again. Some months later she got up one morning and couldn't find her slippers, which were always beside her bed. She eventually found them under her pillow! She told this story to a group of friends one night and one of them contacted me for direction.

Direction : The father of the site manager who built her house was looking for prayer. Masses were to be celebrated which she carried out. Everything has been fine since.

Candles On Birthday Cake

I was invited to Brian's 60th birthday celebration recently. During the party the birthday cake was brought out and all the candles lit. Brian blew out the candles and prepared to cut the birthday cake with his wife. As they did, one of the candles relit. The blaze was three times the size of normal. They left it lighting while they cut the cake and took photos. He then quenched it with his finger and thumb. All this while, I was standing quite near and was aware that there was a message in this. Over a minute later, the candle relit again and Brian quenched it. This happened about 5 times. By the 5th time, I had got the message and I knew it wouldn't relight anymore and it didn't. Masses and prayers were to be offered for his grandfather who was dead about 41 years. A few days later I talked to him about this and it was duly carried out. (PS. For you cynics out there, these weren't trick candles that you can often get to play jokes!)

Flying Tapes

Sean phoned me from Dublin in May 2005 to tell me of strange events happening in his house. Sean is a music lover and often listens to music on his tape recorder at the weekends. While the music was playing, in his own words 'the other tapes would fly around the place'. They would eventually land on the floor. He asked a priest to bless the house twice during that time but the tapes continued to fly around. After praying with him over the phone, I asked him about his favourite music and he mentioned ballad groups. I felt it was connected to the music he was listening to. I asked him if he prayed the Rosary and he mentioned he used to say it when he was young. I mentioned to him, that he needed to pray to Our Lady for direction to get an answer. Deceased family members, belonging to a particular group, were dead for a long time and were not at peace. Masses and other prayers were to be offered for the deceased.

Eagle at Window in Canada

Joan in Canada asked me to forward some books to her and I asked her to call me when she got them, which she did. While on the phone, she said that one day an eagle came to her window and was looking in at her. In her own words 'she went out with a broom to hush him away' but he kept coming back to the same window. He didn't want to go and she found this very strange. We prayed over the phone for direction and a man who resided in the house before her, had contact with eagles, was now deceased and wasn't at peace. Masses and prayers were to be said for him, which she carried out.

Teenage Girl

A teenage girl about 16 was often seen by locals running from a particular house and down along a path in the west of Ireland. She was seen by quite a few people over a period of time and always running. They could describe the clothes she was wearing and what she looked like. A neighbour who had seen her, phoned me and asked for direction. This girl was dead a few years but had been abused when she was young and her abuser needed prayer. She was interceding for her abuser. Direction was given for a series of Masses, Stations of the Cross and other prayers to be carried out.

Jumping Jeep!

At a day of prayer, Denis, who is from Co. Cavan, approached me. Denis told me a story about his brother who went to assist a cow giving birth in a field in April 2004. After looking after the needs of the cow and newborn calf, he got back into his jeep to drive away. As the jeep took off, it started to jump or bounce along the field like a trampoline and this startled him. Denis asked me for direction and I briefly prayed to Our Lady for him and the situation needed more prayer. Denis spent further time in prayer for a couple of days. I asked if his brother had bought any land and Denis said he had bought the field where the cow gave birth about 10 year previous. I received direction that two previous deceased owners of the land needed Masses and prayer. Denis looked after this and the Jeep doesn't jump anymore.

Popping Buttons

Sarah phoned me in April 2005. She couldn't keep the buttons in her coat. When a button would fall out she would sew it back again tighter than before. One day she was at a funeral and after leaving the graveyard, her friend mentioned that she had lost another button from her coat. They both looked for the button and she found it. Sarah took it home and put it away in a drawer for safekeeping. A few days later, she opened a window in the room where she had put the button and the button was up on the window! She couldn't understand how the button got there, as she was the only one in the room. I received a direction that someone related to the person who made the coat needed prayer and direction was given for Masses etc. That solved the button problem!

New Trailer

I was giving a talk in the west of Ireland and during the talk I referred to the previous button story. A woman approached me after the meeting and said that her husband had got a trailer made. The nuts on the bolts of the new trailer kept coming off. He decided to get the tops welded so the nuts couldn't unscrew. For some unknown reason, they still came off and he mentioned to his wife that there seemed to be a spell on the trailer and was going to sell it. He then put a deposit on another trailer. I asked this woman if she knew the makers, which she did. When I prayed to Our Lady for direction, there were two members belonging to makers family that were deceased a long time and needed prayer and Masses etc.

Shoes with Burnt Holes

In June 2005, Jody contacted me about a problem with his shoes. He discovered one day that his thick-soled shoes seemed to be uncomfortable to walk in. When he checked the shoes, one had a big hole burnt into the middle of the sole and another in the heel. When he checked the other shoe, it had one burnt hole in the heel only. They were almost burnt through. He couldn't understand how this would have happened, as he wasn't near any fire. I prayed with him over the phone and felt it had something to do with an accident but needed further prayer for direction. After he prayed, I felt the accident had happened in the early 1960's in Co. Laois. A van collided with a car containing a family of three. The car caught fire and all three perished. The driver of the van was drunk but escaped unharmed. A lot of prayer was needed for the van driver. The burnt holes in the shoes represented the three people who died but they did not need prayer.

Two Hares on Doorstep

Jody also told me about another incident he had. Jody is now retired and goes to daily Mass. In May 2004, when he came home from Mass he would find two young hares sitting on his doorstep. That seemed to happen every time he came home from Mass in the local church but not at any other time. We prayed about it and I asked if he was ever involved with greyhounds and it turned out he had raced greyhounds all his life and he had many friends in the business. I felt some of his friends that were deceased, needed prayer. He wrote a list of his friends and contacted me again. As he read them out, I related to him that two of his friends were not at peace. Direction was given for Masses and Stations of the Cross to be prayed. The two hares represented his friends.

Teapot

In March 2005, Maura phoned me concerned about her new house. Some evenings when she returned home from work, she would find objects would have moved from where she had originally put them. As a habit, she would leave the teapot full of water when not in use. One evening she found the teapot empty but hot and the kettle cold. This startled her. She thought someone was getting in to the house, yet nothing was being taken, only moved. She had the locks changed on the house, but it still continued for some time. I prayed with her over the phone and suicide came up while I was talking to her, but it needed more prayer. Maura prayed further and a few days later I was given direction that someone from her school had died as a result of suicide and needed prayer. During the conversation she mentioned that there were three lads in her area who she knew from primary school. John had committed suicide 8 years ago and Tim 5 years previous. Tim's brother, Paul had just committed suicide in February 2005. A series of Masses needed to be celebrated and prayer said and Maura said she'd organise that. There is no problem in the house since.

Priest in Purgatory for 36 years

Tom phoned me in April 2005 about an incident happening in his local church. Every time the local priest celebrated Mass, during weekdays, there would be a lot of noise in the church. It sounded like someone hitting the heating pipes with a hammer. The people in the church could hear it and the priest often commented about hearing it when alone during private prayer. Tom prayed for a few days and I received direction that a priest from that diocese needed to be prayed for and I was also enlightened as to where he was buried. I visited his grave and he was dead almost 36 years. A series of masses were to be offered over a number of weeks coinciding with the anniversary of his death. The church is quiet now!

Number Plates

Michael was from Tralee, now living in London. He would regularly have experiences of seeing car registration plates. The plates would read 'H E L L' or a combination of these four letters in the number. This happened over a number of years. 6 months before I met him in 2001, it became very regular and he was very worried. He thought it was something to do with him personally. After praying the Rosary to Our Lady for direction, and sharing all the experiences he had with the car registration numbers, Our Lady's message was that he was to pray the sorrowful mysteries, everyday for the rest of his life, for souls that were hell-bound and thousands would be saved. The experiences ceased after this.

Women Who Helped The Travelling People

Bridie is 84. As a child growing up her mother would always have been very generous to the travelling community who came to the house and no one was left away without getting something to eat or being helped in some way. Bridie in turn carried on that tradition. Different families would pass and call to them if they were in the area. Over the last two and a half years, she has heard knocks on her windows and doors and when this happened first she was very frightened as she lives alone. When we prayed about it, it was one of the travelling community, since deceased, who used to call to their house. I would get an outline of what the person looked like and when described, she knew who it was. This experience happens on average of once a month. Sometimes it's the person themselves that needs help and other times they are interceding for their relations on earth. Her last experience was to pray for babies belonging to the travelling community who were born through miscarriage or otherwise and who weren't baptised. This has since been looked after.

The Lady With The Bad Tongue

Myself and my wife Kathleen, went away for a weekend near a seaside town. One day we were having something to eat in a restaurant, which had a confectionery counter at the front. During the meal I got a bad sensation, which continued to get worse. Then a woman walked in and bought something from the confectionery counter. I was severely affected by her presence. We prayed at the table and the message I got from Our Lady was that she had hurt a lot of people by her tongue and had told a lot of untruths. After she left, the reaction gradually subsided the further away she went from the restaurant. The purpose was to pray for her.

Phone Ringing With No-One On The Other End

One evening at tea, the phone rang, which wouldn't be unusual. When I went to answer it stopped. After a few minutes it rang again and I picked up the receiver, said 'hello' a few times but there was no answer on the other end. I noticed a Cork number on the caller ID. The call ceased. I went back to my tea. A few minutes later the same thing happened again, with the same number. I said hello about 10 times and listened, but there was no sound. Eventually the call ceased. I immediately rang the number on the caller ID. A woman answered and I asked her if she had called me and I gave her my number. She wanted to know from where I was calling. She said she hadn't made any phone call that evening. I immediately got a direction to have two Masses celebrated for her deceased brother.

The Stolen Sheep

Two women and a man came to visit me from Offaly one evening and they were in the farming business. During the evening, I kept getting a direction about a problem with sheep. I asked them if they kept sheep and they had in the past, but not anymore. The sheep kept coming up while talking and praying. I asked if any neighbours had any sheep. I was told that one neighbour had a lot sheep but there had never been any problems or trespass there. He asked me if I meant 'pigs' as he had trouble with some neighbours who had pigs. No it was definitely sheep. I asked if there had been any incidents of sheep-stealing in the area. Instantly it struck a chord and all three said there was. I asked him if he had sheep stolen. He had and knew who the culprit was. It transpired that the man in question was going home one night in his van. He got a heart attack and died with a stolen sheep in the back of the van. These three were directed to pray for him; a series of Masses were to be celebrated and Novenas prayed. The man was dead about 25 years.

The Tree Near Seans Garage

In 1996, I visited my friend Sean one day but he wasn't there when I arrived. While I was waiting for him, I could sense there was a problem about a mile away across the fields. I looked in that general direction and noticed a tree and I felt the problem originated in that area. When he arrived back, I mentioned this to him and he immediately knew what it was. In the early 1960's Sean was cutting hay for a neighbour, whose father had died some time previous to that. Sean's father Mick was bringing in newly sharpened blades for the mowing bar along a lane leading to the field. Suddenly he heard a sound. He turned around and saw his recently deceased neighbour coming down the lane behind him on a bicycle! As he got within talking distance of him, Mick was startled and frightened and shouted at this figure, 'you're not going to harm my son' and with that, he disappeared. Obviously the neighbour still needed prayer so I got to speak to the deceased man's son about this.

Direction: A series of Masses were to be celebrated and various prayers said.

Flies In Bedroom

Joan called me one morning. They had a terrible problem in their bedroom with flies. There were thousands of them. They didn't know where they came from and tried everything to get rid of them. Eventually they moved from the bedroom to their sitting room and sure enough the flies moved as well! We prayed about it over the phone and I was shown an old graveyard. I asked her if there was an old graveyard near her house and she told me she was looking out at it though the window! I was given direction that there were three souls that were buried there who weren't at peace. I advised her of the prayers and Masses that needed to be carried out and the flies disappeared.

Flies In Sligo

Pat and his wife went to visit relations. They usually stayed in the guest room of the house. On the night they arrived the family were away, but when they entered the guest room, it was full of flies to such an extent that his wife ran out of the room. He used a Hoover, but it only partially worked and he eventually slept on his own (with the flies!). His wife slept on a couch in the kitchen. All through the night, she could hear people walking up and down outside the house, which terrified her. The following day, they contacted me. We prayed over a couple of days and I was given direction that it was related to unforgiveness. It was a massive dispute with neighbours over grazing rights on common land (commonage) from the 1920's. There was a lot of hurt and unforgiveness because of the dispute. Masses had to be celebrated and Novenas prayed for this. This was duly done and the flies disappeared. (I have come across other similar incidents)

Incidents In Flats At Westminster, London

Aidan took me to two blocks of flats and mentioned that there was an unusual sensation in the staff room of the first block and there had been a lot of other incidents in the second block. We went to the first block and we prayed in the staff room for some time. I knew there was a problem, but wasn't getting a clear direction. We climbed the stairs to the top of the building, which I had requested and when I got there, I could sense that the problem was still in the Staff room, which we had left. We returned down to the Staff room and prayed further. The direction came that someone had committed suicide and I asked Aidan about it, but he said no. I felt the suicide was connected to him in some way and I told him so. I asked him if anyone in his family committed suicide and he said no. I then asked him if any of his neighbours in Ireland committed suicide and he said not to his knowledge. After praying further I got a clear message. A neighbour of his committed suicide a long time ago, when Aidan was very young and that he was traumatised by this incident. I asked him if he remembered it and after some time, he mentioned a neighbour called Joe. I said that's the man and asked Aidan what he knew about Joe. Joe drank weed killer and died as a result and it had a terrible affect on Aidan for a long time. Joe's family never prayed for him and were probably shocked and hurt by the event.

Direction: Masses and Novenas were to be celebrated.

We then went to the top of the second block. I could feel evil coming from the walls & roof and knew that somebody in the building was involved in evil spiritualism. There had been a murder there and someone had died from drugs and there seemed to be a lot of unrest. We prayed in the staff room at the bottom.

Direction: The rite of exorcism and Mass were to be celebrated in the building and the place blessed with Holy Water. If this wasn't done, the tragedies would continue.

Suicide Bridge In Higate, London

Everybody in London probably knows ‘Suicide Bridge’ in Higate. It was probably built in the 1800’s and is about 100 ft high over a motorway below. Over the years, many people have taken their lives from this bridge, thus its name. Since I first went to London, I would get very physically affected, every time I passed over the bridge. We prayed about it and there were many souls who died there and were not at peace.

Direction: Stations of the Cross and Masses were to be celebrated. A priest was to pray at the bridge, which was subsequently organised and I haven’t been affected since.

Bridge In Athlone, Co. Westmeath

The bridge of Athlone was known for a famous battle in past history, but in recent times for other tragedies. On pilgrimage to Knock Shrine, we would always have to pass the bridge en route and I would often be physically affected. I would know that somebody had taken their life here. On one occasion, coming home at the end of the pilgrimage season in Knock, I was under tremendous physical strain driving over the bridge to such an extent, that my wife Kathleen thought I was going to crash. After stopping for a break, we prayed on the way home. I knew it was a suicide situation. On the following Tuesday night on national television, a programme was relayed about the amount of suicides that had taken place in Athlone in the previous two and a half years, which totalled 25. Various friends of those who died were interviewed, both boys and girls who seemed to be in their late teens. Most of those interviewed gave vague or implausible answers as to what had happened, but the last interviewee, a girl, claimed that they had heard the river calling them, i.e. this is the voice of Satan urging them in. (How sad). I organised and asked as many people as possible around the country to pray for them. About three months later, the souls needing prayer were all at peace.

Golders Green Suicide - Jason

In October 1999, when I was on a weeks mission in London, I had a few hours to spare one evening and my brother John took me to Golders Hill Park, Golders Green. As we walked around the park we came upon an area where there was a high wall and I was very physically affected. I pointed to a certain area on the wall and knew someone had committed suicide. John mentioned that there was a school on the other side. A few days later, I was at dinner in his house, and he brought up the incident at the meal. His son was present and mentioned that he knew about the suicide. Jason was 16 and happened to be a school friend. We contacted his family whom I have met quite often since.

Direction: Stations of the Cross and Masses were to be celebrated.

Golden Gate Bridge - San Francisco

The Golden Gate Bridge in San Francisco is a world-renowned suspension bridge. It connects two points of land over the sea. During guided tours, there is a reference to the large amount of suicides and they all seem to go over the same side. A maintenance man, who retired a couple of years ago, had worked on the bridge. His job was continually cleaning and painting the bridge. He would work from one end to the other and would start all over again. Shortly after he retired, he got very sick and his sickness seemed unusual. My friend Ann who knew him, contacted me, so a Novena of Rosaries was organised for him. At the end of the Novena, I was told there was no message concerning him, but that a lot of people had taken their lives off the bridge where he had worked and they needed to be prayed for.

Direction: A Novena of Masses was to be celebrated for those souls. As soon as this direction was carried out, the man got better.

Accidents

I have often been in a scrap-yard with cars, and have been affected by one of the wrecks, because someone may have been killed in that car and wasn't at peace.

Rally Driver

My friend Peter contacted me. One night after his 9-year-old son went to bed one of his toy cars started racing around the room in a circle, which woke him. He jumped out of bed and ran frightened down the stairs to his mother and said that the room was haunted and told her what was happening. She phoned me and we prayed about it. I felt it was someone that Peter knew who was killed in a car accident and who had also been involved in rallying. This was revealed to me. Peter knew who I was talking about and directions were given for this situation to be prayed for.

Direction: One Mass a month for 6 months was to be celebrated and they were to remember him daily in prayer time.

Man Killed By A Bull

Noreen, living in Co. Laois was in the yard outside her house one day. She could hear a man shouting some distance away as if looking for help. She knew that there was nobody in the place from where this voice was coming. Other members of her family had had experiences similar to this before. I asked her to get her family to pray a Novena of the Rosary to Our Lady for direction.

Direction: A man was killed by a bull in 1941 about a mile from where she lived and I could tell her the general direction where this happened. I asked her to make enquiries from some of the older generation in the area and after three weeks she was able to confirm that incident with a neighbour who remembered. Stations of the Cross and Masses were to be celebrated as before.

Priest Coming Up The Church

A female sacristan was closing the church in a village in Co. Laois. She had locked all the outside doors in the church. She would normally turn out the lights in the church, and then leave by the sacristy door. This evening she was in the sacristy and gave one last look out into the church before she turned off the lights and to her amazement she saw a priest coming up the church, with all his vestments on with two altar boys. He seemed to be in his 40's and was tall and slim. She was very frightened by this and turned off the lights and fled. This incident happened about 1990. We prayed about this situation with Novenas of the Rosary to Our Lady.

Direction: This was a priest who was killed in an accident in England and had on his list to pray for a deceased person, but was killed before this Mass could be celebrated. I was also able to confirm that this man was about 40. A Mass was to be celebrated for this intention and that was carried out. (I had about 3 other incidents like this, but not as detailed. They were all related to a priest dying before he got to complete saying Mass for an intention).

Pray For Unbaptised Babies Lost Through Miscarriage or Abortion

Kathleen has lived in her current house for about 50 years. When they first moved into the house it was only built 2 years, but someone had lived in it prior to them. When her family were children, they would hear a baby crying yet there was no young baby in the house. It went on for a number of years, but they never told Kathleen and she never heard it herself. When the family grew up and moved away, she began to have unusual experiences in the house, e.g. the telephone on the table inside the door would have been left on the floor against the door; a glass table in the porch with a flower pot, had the top taken off and the pot placed in the middle of the legs, with the glass left aside; the flower vases being turned over on the shelf, but strangely the flowers never fell out. There were other strange happenings also. This continued for quite a while. One time, Kathleen got very sick and when she was recovering, she was brought a little book about how important it was to have babies baptised especially those lost through miscarriage, abortion or otherwise. She started to pray for the babies and carried out the instructions in the book. As soon as she did this, everything came back to normal.

The Pigeon Woman

One afternoon in November 2002 in London I was driven by my sister Ann to give a talk in the Padre Pio shop in Victoria. We were driving on a side street coming up to a junction, and we were stopped because there was a queue of traffic in front of us. I glanced up the footpath, and noticed a small cloud of about 100 pigeons, flying in a balloon shape over a couple that were coming towards us along the path. The woman, aged about 60, was in front, pulling a small shopping trolley behind her. A man who was with her, was one step behind and seemed to be a bit older. The pigeons seemed to be flying busily in all directions, in a tight ball about 12 inches over her head. I first thought that she was feeding them, but then realised that she wasn't even aware that they were there. They were like woodpigeons and were all the same colour, not usually found in London. When she came to within 10 metres of the car, I was almost knocked sideways. I shouted to my sister to look at all the pigeons. I was told that this lady had multiple abortions and also organised prostitution, some years back. A message came to have the babies baptised and to pray for her. I also felt that these weren't real pigeons, but angels who took the form of pigeons to attract my attention to her.

Difficulty Selling Property

Two older ladies and their niece came to visit me. During the course of the conversation one of the ladies mentioned that they had building property in a prime area near a county town. They had bought it some years ago and had built some houses for the family and the rest of the property they put up for sale. They had it sold on two occasions and at the last minute the purchasers pulled out. They couldn't understand this, especially because of its location. They wanted to know was there some problem with it. We prayed about it and I asked her if the area had been a wasteland. She said that it was but in later years was turned into an amenity area. While praying, I got a direction that there were a lot of unbaptised babies buried in this particular area, going back to pre-famine times. The victims of two different murder situations, which happened during the second half of the 1800's, were also buried here. The direction given was to have all the babies baptised. One woman was familiar with how to do this. It amounted to 155. There were two people involved in one murder and four in the other and a series of Masses were to be celebrated and Novena's offered. A Mass of atonement was to be said for all the evil that happened in that particular area.

Marie From Athlone

Marie in Athlone called me. Her son had difficulty sleeping in a particular room in the house because of a disturbance. We prayed for direction and I was told that there was a woman who used to live in the house a few years ago who had had a miscarriage and the baby wasn't baptised.

Ann From Kerry

Ann from Kerry contacted me. In Co. Kerry, a pile of stones would often be made to mark the burial place of babies born prematurely and unbaptised which was known as a 'lois'. There was one of these on their own farm and she wondered if something needed to be done. She prayed about it and called me back within 24hrs. I was told there were no babies in the lois that needed to be baptised. Instead I was guided to an old churchyard nearby that contained two areas where unbaptised babies had been buried. Ann looked after this.

Princess Diana

When Princess Diana died I was made aware that all three people killed in the car needed to be prayed for. Because she was such a high profile person, she touched the hearts of millions as a result of the tragedy. Her funeral service in Westminster Abbey was relayed all over the world. At this point millions were praying for her and as a result of this massive amount of prayer, her soul was released to heaven. She was a great friend of Mother Teresa of Calcutta. The two of them worked at different levels of society; Mother Teresa working with the underprivileged at the level of the gutter in Calcutta and Diana working at a high profile level on landmines. Dodi and the driver didn't get peace until much later, but they did benefit from the prayers. Never did so many people pray for one person at one time. Millions!

Hospital Related Incidents

Marie is a young nurse, working in a hospital in London. During night duty, the nurse alarm would signal for help from the ward she was working on, but when she went to check, there were no lights on and no one would have rang the bell. This happened quite often when she was on duty, sometimes the ward lights would flicker also. She reported the matter to have it checked out, because this had been happening for a few weeks. The maintenance staff checked all systems and everything was found to be in working order. It then transpired that this only happened when she was on duty. This concerned her. I was contacted about this and we prayed.

Direction: There were a lot of medical staff, who had worked in the hospital down through the years, who had passed on and were not at peace and needed to be prayed for. A series of Masses were to be celebrated and Stations of the Cross to be prayed. This situation ceased immediately.

Phil, another nurse, now retired, felt a continuous presence and heard various noises in her house. She contacted me for help.

Direction: Pray for the deceased patients who died in the hospital where she previously worked, who were not at peace. A series of Masses were to be celebrated and Stations of the Cross to be prayed, which she duly looked after and the experiences ceased.

Frances, another nurse, has had a lot of experiences similar to above. She shared a house with a single girl, who wasn't practising her faith. Frances had often advised her in various ways to do something about it. Her friend since died. In October 2002, Frances had a vision in her bedroom. In the vision, her housemate appeared, standing on the carpet in front of her. She looked completely black and sparks emanated from where she stood. There was a man standing behind her and he was also black. This really bothered Frances and she contacted me. We prayed over three days for direction.

Direction: (Our Lady) She didn't listen to my pleadings (through Frances).

A Land Dispute

A couple living in Tipperary were to get married in November and the previous February they had made arrangements to build their new house and all legal requirements had gone through and a builder had been booked. For some unknown reason they couldn't get the house started. There seemed to be a problem or delay every week. It went from week to week and soon enough it was October. I was contacted by the young man's mother. I asked her to organise a group of her family to pray a Novena of Rosaries for 9 days to Our Lady for direction and to pray for Our Lady's intentions also.

Direction: Circa 1922 there was a land dispute, near where the house was to be built and four men murdered a young man as a result. It transpired that they killed the wrong man; his brother was the intended victim. (I asked her to make enquiries about this incident because it wasn't that long ago and somebody should know something about it. She checked this out and the only thing different was a reference to a 'group' of men). All the family members that prayed initially for direction, were now to pray Novenas of The Stations of the Cross for 9 days and several Masses were to be celebrated. As soon as the Novena was started the building suddenly commenced and the house was finished the following February and they have a young family since.

RIC Police Station

Donal lives in a small village in Tipperary. His house is built on the former site of a RIC Police Station. For a number of years, he had an uncomfortable feeling about his own house and would regularly suffer from headaches. He felt that they were related. He contacted me and I asked him to pray a Novena of the Rosary to Our Lady and to get some of his family to help, which he did.

Direction: In the early 1900's, a man died in the RIC Station as a result of a beating by two policemen. The policemen obviously had remorse for their actions and were looking for prayer. As before, Novenas of The Stations of the Cross were to be prayed for 9 days and several Masses were to be celebrated. (While he was carrying out the directions, someone gave him a photo of 6 policemen standing outside the Barracks in the early 1900's and the two men in question happened to be standing on the left side in the photo). I could verify this when I saw the picture.

Bombing In Kerry

Finbarr called me on a Monday. On the previous Saturday a bird was discovered in the house and he didn't know how it got in. It looked like a blackbird, but it wasn't blackbird. They tried to get it out of the house, with doors and windows opened, but it refused to go for quite a while. It flew upstairs and downstairs and eventually left by the back sitting room window. At Mass on Sunday, he got a call to say there was a fire in the house. He had cleaned out the grate and had put the ashes into the bin which obviously took fire under the window that the bird had flown out through. It was under control when he arrived home. His friend asked him to call me, that there may be a link between the bird and the fire. I discerned that something needed looking after. I asked him to pray for two days and the message I got was that there was a great tragedy in 1923 during the civil war and a lot of men were blown up with a bomb. I asked him if he knew anything about it and he didn't. I asked him to investigate this incident, which he did and he called me later. A group of 9 men who were being held as prisoners, were taken out by the government forces, tied together and blown up with a bomb. The majority of them were killed instantly. There were 8 people responsible for this tragedy and they suffered great remorse and sorrow in later years for what they had done when they were young men. He was to have a series of Masses celebrated and Novenas of Rosaries prayed because he wasn't familiar with the Stations of the Cross. He asked what had this incident got to do with him and I told him nothing except that Our Lady wanted him to be the instrument to help these souls. All directions were carried out.

Murder In 1798 - Galway

A couple that had a lot of tragedy in their family came to me looking for help. While we were praying, they asked if it had anything to do with their house. I knew something needed to be looked after and asked them to pray to the immaculate heart of Mary for her intentions and direction and to put in as much prayer as possible. They phoned me a few days later. I had got a direction that it was not connected with the house, but that 100 yards south of their home, two women had been murdered in 1798, by three men, two older men and a younger person. This was nothing got to do with the rebellion. After all those years, a series of Masses were to be celebrated and Novenas of the Stations of the Cross were to be prayed in atonement for what they had done.

American Naval Base At Pearl Harbour

The American naval base at Pearl Harbour was bombed on 7th December 1941 by the Japanese, which is well documented, as everybody knows. There were a lot of American sailors and personnel killed in this bombing raid, which amounted to 2,300. My friend Ann visited there for 3 days in 2000 and felt a terrible coldness or chill about the area, which bothered her. She contacted me and we prayed a Novena of the Rosaries to Our Lady for direction.

Direction: There was a lot of loose living in the area at this time, because the amount of young men hugely exceeded the percentage of women. Some of these still needed help after all those years. A Novena of nine Masses was to be celebrated for their souls (which was duly organised by Ann)

San Francisco - Ann

Ann relates this particular incident. A house beside where she lives had been vacant for quite some time. Her daughter was outside one day, when the police came to the vacant house. They asked if anyone lived in the house and she told them that nobody had lived in the house for quite a long time. They found this unusual as they had received phone calls registered at that address on numerous occasions and when they arrived, there was nobody there. We prayed about it to Our Lady and it was revealed that a woman who had lived in the house, at one time, needed spiritual help.

Direction: Stations of the Cross and Masses were to be celebrated for her soul.

San Francisco - Native American Indians

Ann's daughter was at home one day, and was in a room that had french doors. Suddenly the doors opened and the curtains started to swing but there was no breeze. There was a beautiful aroma of incense around the room. When she went through the french-doors the aroma was outside also! She was startled by this and wondered what it meant. I was contacted and we prayed about it for direction.

Direction: The message was to pray for the authorities that unfairly treated and murdered the Native American Indians in this area in the 1800's. Mass was celebrated and prayers said for this situation

In 1999 I was in Medjugorje and a young American woman, Marie, was staying in the same house as our group. She was on her own but had been there many times before. One day I received a message from Our Lady that she (Marie) was to pray and that Our Lady would have a message for her before we'd leave. A few days passed and I received the message as follows; she was to pray for the people who were responsible for the atrocities that were committed against the American Indians in the area where she lived. Marie told me that her father was an Irish doctor and her mother's family belonged to an Indian tribe. Her grandfather was an Indian chief and the tribe was now extinct.

Florida

In October 2002, we went on a trip to Miami, Florida. We went to Key West and having arrived there in the afternoon we parked our car beside what turned out to be a memorial garden to the victims of Aids. There were slabs of black marble with seven names on each, which amounted to 400 names in total. Looking through the names, there were so many familiar Irish surnames. I got a direction to pray for these souls and informed a couple of the parishioners who I met at Mass the following morning and also wrote to the priest to have special prayers offered for those.

Also when in Florida, I was reading in the paper about a woman who had been sentenced to death for committing 6 murders. After numerous appeals failed, she was executed on 9 October. The second last line of her final speech made a reference to Jesus and when praying for her I was told that she would spend a long long time in purgatory.

There were other incidents in the US which are not related here which needed to be prayed for.

Bermuda Triangle

It is known all over the world that ships and planes were disappearing without trace in this area over a number of years. Kenneth McCaul was a minister and expert on psychology. Having the gift of discernment he went out on a ship to investigate the area. He could hear people crying and it was revealed to him that it was the souls of young African men and women who were being transported as slaves to the American continent in inhumane conditions. A lot died in transit and many were drowned deliberately. In 1976, an ecumenical service was organised on board a ship to deal with this.

The Titanic

When I was a child, my father often spoke of the Titanic and retained a lot of information as to what happened on that epic voyage and the personnel on board. There were 6 people from the area where he was born in Culahill, Co. Laois that drowned in the accident. That was probably the reason why he had such an interest! I went to one of the first showings of the film since I had heard so much about it growing up. I was fascinated as to how accurate his account of the tragedy was and the names of the people on board like John Jacob Astor and his 18-year-old expectant wife and many other wealthy people. When the film started I got very physically affected for the first three minutes. It got so bad I thought I'd have to leave the cinema. The experience suddenly ceased. I watched the rest of the film without any problems until the last two minutes when I was suddenly affected again. I then got a message from Our Lady, to pray for all those who lost their lives and were still not at peace. I prayed for them and asked others to pray also. Two weeks later I went back again to see how the souls were progressing! The experience repeated itself and I received another message. She asked me to pray especially for those in command of the vessel. They were careless in their quest for glory because they were trying to break the record for crossing the Atlantic on a maiden voyage. They were driving the ship at its maximum speed. Irrespective of being warned about icebergs on the route they did alter course somewhat, but it meant very little in terms of the ocean. I kept up the prayers and asked more to pray and I went back a third time, three weeks later. The souls still needed prayer. After my fourth visit, a few weeks later again, all souls were finally free.

People Killed In War

During the summer of 2002, I went on a weeks break across to France and Germany with my wife. We visited various historical sites and churches. Part of the trip entailed a visit to the World War 1 site of the Battle of Verdun where thousands died. On arriving there, the poppy fields were in full bloom, clothed in a mantle of red. We visited the memorial church, which housed hundreds of tons of the bones of the fallen in its basement and there are acres of white crosses. While there I received this direction.

Direction: There are souls of people that are still not a peace, who died on this battlefield and I was to pray for them. (This has since been organised)

Sailor In The Navy - Our Lady Fights For Your Soul

Kathleen is a lady from Waterford who I met in 1999 in London, where she now lives. She went as a teenager to Liverpool in the 40's and her uncle who had been in the British navy, was a sailor on a ship in a convoy that was torpedoed by the Germans. He was one of five that survived out of hundreds that died. He received a bad hip injury on his escape. On leaving the navy he got a job working on the docks, but because of the hip injury he had to leave after two years. He was an Irish Catholic but didn't go to Mass or pray. Kathleen was very concerned about his spiritual well-being and was always encouraging him to go to Mass but he wasn't interested. His hip condition got worse and at one stage she wanted to bring the priest to him, but he didn't want it. They were having a mission in the parish, some time later, so she suggested bringing the missionary priest to him, and he said 'OK, but that's as far as it goes'. He continued to get worse and eventually had to go to hospital. He asked Kathleen if she could tell the parish priest that he was going to hospital. (Some change!) He continued to deteriorate and was soon dying. All relations came in to see him one particular afternoon. Suddenly what seemed like a ferocious row or battle took place outside the window of the hospital where he lay, to such an extent that some of the people ran from the ward because they were terrified. The uncle died during this 'battle'. As the relations were leaving to go home, they met the Chaplain of the hospital and they told him what had happened at their uncle's death. The Chaplain said "It was a battle between Satan and Our Lady for his soul, but Our Lady won. I was able to verify that"

When she had finished telling me this story, I got a direction, that some of his shipmates were still not at peace and that he was interceding for them. Our Lady gave the direction for a series of Masses and Stations of the Cross to be prayed for this man's shipmates. It amounted to a lot of prayer, but Kathleen had no problem with this.

Chapter 3 - Individuals Requests for Our Lady's Help

Healing Through FORGIVENESS - Marcia's Story

Marcia, a nurse, contacted me in October 2002. She was the oldest of three sisters. Their father was a severe alcoholic and he constantly verbally and sexually abused his family and wife. He spent two jail sentences for this and they lived in constant fear. The three girls were taken to an orphanage for a few years when they were very small and it was like heaven to them. They returned home, only to be met with the same situation again. The only time they had peace was when they were in the orphanage or when he was in jail. He beat their mother shortly before she died, even though she wasn't in good health and the sisters were completely traumatised by this brutality. As adults they still hadn't come to terms with their upbringing. Christmas was dreaded, as it was when they suffered most. She wouldn't open her cards or presents until February of the following year. When their mother was dying she requested that her husband was not to be buried anywhere near her.

Her father developed cirrhosis of the liver at 60 and died at 63. Marcia nursed him for the last three years of his life and that was the only part of his life that she wanted to remember. He never once said sorry for all the hurt he had caused or made any reference to it. When he died his remains were cremated and the ashes were scattered over the graveyard, to fulfil her mother's wishes. We prayed about this to Our Lady over a few days and the direction I got was that they would have to FORGIVE their father for the hurt he had caused them even though it wasn't going to be easy and I emphasised this to her. She will have to have a lot of Masses celebrated (the number was given) and pray constantly for a year for him. Marcia took two roses in November to the churchyard where her parents were buried. She put one on her mother's grave and put the other one elsewhere in the churchyard. As soon as she did, she heard a voice, loud and clear, which repeated three times, 'Put The Two Roses Together'. She brought the other rose and put it beside the one on her mother's grave. She was startled by this revelation.

In the meantime one of her sisters, now in her 50's was in a convalescent home, suffering from depression and severe skin rash, eczema. Before she went to the home, she found it extremely difficult to go to Holy Communion at Mass, because she would hear threatening voices. When we prayed about it, Mary was to contact a certain priest and have her sister go to him. This man in turn, directed her to another priest. When he prayed with her, the evil voices that had affected her instantly disappeared. Everyday, she would have to use creams for her skin problem. The following morning, it was completely gone. Two weeks later someone involved in Reiki Healing came to the home, and laid hands on her and everything came back instantly. She had to be taken back to the same priest to rectify the situation.

Mary's story is Healing through Forgiveness and because she prayed for her father during his life, his soul was saved.

Workplaces

A manager in a manufacturing complex in Co. Meath called me as he was under managerial pressure. We had been praying about the situation for a while and he then invited me to visit the plant. I was shown around and met most of the people who worked there. He explained how everything operated. Two days later, having been to the factory, I got direction as to what he needed to do.

I was invited to a factory in the midlands. We had been praying about a situation in the factory prior to that. On arrival I was taken around the premises and was met by the operations manager. He mentioned about a terrible coldness in the workshop 365 days of the year, irrespective of the weather outside. We prayed on the premises. A victim of a murder situation had been buried in about 1860 and there were four people responsible for this person's death. In later years, they suffered remorse for what they had done and were now looking for help. A Mass was to be celebrated on the premises, which was carried out. When I called him a month later he (jokingly) said the temperature was too high now!!

Lady with Violent Husband

I met a lady in 2002. Her marriage had fallen apart due to a violent relationship with her husband. While we were praying and talking to her, various aspects of both their lives were revealed to me, which I shared with her. There were a lot of her husband's deceased relations going back a few generations that needed a lot of prayer. It was revealed to me that she should have a Mass celebrated every week for 6 months and to pray for them every day during that period. This sounded like a mammoth task and I asked her if she would be able to do this. She said that she had no problem looking after it.

Relationship Decision

Mary was going out with a young man, Tom for approx 6 years. There were little upheavals at times and it might end temporarily but through a lovely bouquet of flowers it would be reconciled. On this occasion, the relationship had ended for some time and she wondered if she had made the right decision as Tom was pressurising her a lot to get back together. I was contacted and we prayed a Novena of Rosaries for this situation and for Our Lady's intentions. I was told at the end of the Novena;

Direction: This man was not for her. He is unsure of everything he does. He would get back with her to get married, but would then change his mind and would wonder if he was doing the right thing. He would often decide to do something and at the last minute change his mind. (There were other situations and I discussed this in detail with her and she was able to confirm his temperament to me exactly as Our Lady had relayed.)

About six months later, I heard Mary was going to get married. I wondered who the man was and was amazed to be told it was Tom, her ex boyfriend! They got married and I was told in the early stages, there were difficulties and exactly one year to the day they got married, their marriage ended and Mary left Tom, for good. Our Lady's prediction fulfilled! She has since gone through all the various state and church annulments and I'm glad to say is now happily married with a lovely husband and young family.

Lady Who Wanted To Buy A House In Fatima

Bernie was a lady I met in London through a friend in 1990. Her father's family were Anglican and her mother's were Catholic. She would have been a very lukewarm Christian till one day when she went to Westminster cathedral. She was having a walk around inside and picked up a booklet that changed her life and she often went to Mass twice a day. She was married and lived in an upmarket area of London. Her husband had separated from her. Bernie would often contact me looking for various directions in her life, through Our Lady and we were continually praying Novenas, for this, that and the other.

She never waited until the Novena was finished and carried out whatever she had in mind before she got direction, and would then want to know what the direction from Our Lady was. As a result, things never went her way. On one occasion, she wanted to know if she should move to Portugal, as she wanted to buy a house near Fatima. We prayed about it, and Our Lady's direction, was 'no, for a lot of practical reasons'. She would have to buy a house and live on her savings as she only spoke English, and wouldn't get a job. She went ahead anyway and bought a run down house that needed a lot repair and ran into all sorts of difficulties, both legally and financially. She still continued to look for direction! On one of the later occasions, Our Lady said, I'll give direction, but she will do her own thing anyway. (and that was true).

Chapter 4 - Advanced Warning of a Death or Accident

Jim (a close friend of the family) was a semi-retired farmer. The family bought a new tractor and it gave a lot of problems especially starting it. They took it back to the dealer to have it fixed, but it came back with the same problems. One Sunday morning, he was going to herd and it was raining and he decided to take the tractor. It was parked on a slope facing between two concrete piers. He had to start the tractor on the ground with a wrench. The door of the tractor was opened, from the front. Once he started the tractor it leaped forward as it was in gear and he was crushed against the pier and the door and he died instantly. Kathleen and myself had been out milking the cows and when we came back in to the house, all the doors were closed. When we entered the kitchen, there was a young robin flying around and also a great smell of diesel fuel. It was 9.30am. I instantly knew there had been an accident and I first thought it was my son, because he was away for the weekend and was due home around this time. I was very concerned, but I didn't let this be known. I got a message from Our Lady, that there would be a phone call and later that morning, the phone did ring. My wife Kathleen answered the phone and I was tentatively listening to the conversation. I could hear 'it happened at 9.30' and with the bits and pieces that I could hear discovered that it wasn't my son, but Jim. He didn't need to be prayed for, as he had been to Mass that morning and was a very good living man, but Our Lady was letting me know of the tragedy in this way.

Tom phoned me from Dublin, to let me know that his brother, Frank was ill with cancer. He was concerned about his spiritual well-being. He was living in a flat and was being looked after by friends on a continuous basis. We prayed a Novena to Our Lady for him and after the 9 days, Tom called me again. I was told that Frank would not be around for long, which I related to Tom. I asked Tom to pray (along with his friends) the Stations of the Cross this particular Sunday and to continue to pray for him as much as possible. I asked him to let me know if anything happened to Frank. The following Wednesday evening, I turned on the TV to hear the news at 6pm. Instantly I heard 'Frank is dead' coming from the TV. Tom phoned me the following night to let me know of Frank's death, and I was able to tell him I already knew! He had died that Wednesday at 2pm and he didn't need any further prayer.

I would often be drawn to pray for people before they die. This has happened about 16 times already.

My Father - John

In September of 1994, I got a direction from Our Lady that I was to pray for my father, as he wouldn't be long around, even though he seemed in perfect health at 92. He was quite active, didn't have a wrinkle on his face and his intellect was as sharp as a person of 21. I shared this with the rest of the family and some of them were a bit disturbed by this news. He died in April 1995.

He always took off his cap and prayed the Angelus irrespective of who was in company and whether they could answer it or not! He would spend an hour in prayer each night before he would go to bed and would pray again the following morning.

My mother Ellen, died on 12 December 1985, 10 years previously. It wasn't until the following year, that I started having these experiences. She worked very hard looking after her family of 11 and on the farm. She was a prayerful person and had high moral standards.

My Uncle Tommy died in March 1995. Three months previously I was asked to pray for him too. One February, I was drawn to pray for a man that I had sat beside in our local pub. I would often get a burning sensation on the part of my body that would be nearest to the person I would be drawn to. This man died on the following Easter Sunday in April, two months later. I was also asked to pray for a neighbour who used to kneel behind me at Mass and each Sunday subsequently, I would pray for him when he'd arrive. He died one and a half years later. That was the longest time between being told and the person's death. On another occasion I was in a restaurant having Sunday lunch when I got a burning sensation in my back. I turned around and there was a couple sitting behind me. I was told to pray for the man as he would not be long around. I recognised him, but he didn't know me. He died four months later.

Funerals

We have a great custom in Ireland, where neighbours and friends attend funerals and many people bring Mass Offerings/Cards, which is a powerful help to the deceased person. It's so important to pray for the deceased person at a funeral you may attend. If everyone in church prayed one Rosary, what a benefit it would be to releasing that soul! I will always know after a requiem Mass whether the soul is at peace or not. A soul is helped greatly by the funeral Mass.

A son of my friend was killed in a tragic car accident. At the funeral, when the coffin was being carried past me I heard a voice appealing for prayer and help and I knew it was coming from the coffin. I prayed about this and I was given direction by Our Lady that his family were to pray for him. Even though it wasn't outwardly obvious, I could sense scepticism from some but all the directions were carried out.

I attended the funeral of a 19-year-old girl who was also killed tragically in an accident in the locality. As the coffin left the church, I heard her say, 'Pray for me, I never knew the grace of God'

Chapter 5 - Evil Situations

Lady On Farm In Cavan

A married lady in Cavan was experiencing unusual things in her house. Flowerpots on windows moved to the floor and vice versa. Other things were moved in the house also. She would sense as if somebody had come through the window every morning at 3am and would know everywhere they would move around the house. We prayed for souls that needed to be helped and the items stopped moving. The presence coming through the window stopped as well. After some time, she contacted me again as she felt all wasn't well. There was an awful smell in one part of the house and in the meantime they had scrubbed and disinfected the area to no avail. We prayed and I felt it was an evil situation. I asked her to have a Mass celebrated in the house, have it blessed and to inform the celebrant what was happening. She did this, and the situation improved only marginally. A second Mass was celebrated by a different priest with only a slight improvement again. After some time, I advised her to get another priest (who is specifically involved in exorcism) to do the same again, which she did. He spent many hours praying in the house. She felt there had been a 96% improvement. This time the smell was gone but there was still something there. The third priest celebrated a fourth Mass privately and the mission was accomplished. This happened over one and a half years. A lot of prayer and four Masses later, she rang to say 'at last there was peace in the house'.

Pornographic Videos

Some years ago, our TV was giving trouble. We asked a repairman to have a look to see what the problem was. We weren't getting a proper reception, when everybody else in the area was. This man was highly experienced. He did whatever he could, and there was a slight improvement but the reception was still poor. He came a second time to check the TV in the sitting room and I found that I wasn't physically able to go in while he was there as there seemed to be a barrier that prevented me. I started to pray about it. This happened on the four other occasions that he came with no improvement in the TV. On his last visit I was given direction that he was showing pornographic videos in his house and elsewhere and prayer was needed for that situation. Another man eventually fixed the TV in 15 minutes!!

Black Dog and Two Year Old Child in Supermarket

In February 2008, Kevin was in his local church one evening in North London, when he met Breda and her daughter Sue. During their conversation, Breda told him that Sue resented being loved from the time she was a small child. She had brought Sue to many places to be prayed with before and Sue would often go into convulsions as if being affected by some type of spirit. Kevin suggested that he would pray with Sue and as soon as he put his hand on her shoulder, she dropped to the floor and like before when into convulsions and ended up under the seats of the church. Kevin was terrified and ran for the local priest. By the time the priest arrived, she was OK again. The priest then prayed with her. Kevin contacted me that night and we prayed for direction. I was directed that this girl was possessed by an evil spirit and to ask Breda what happened with a black dog in the supermarket when Sue was 2 years old (she's now 33). Kevin made contact with Breda, and she told him of an incident that happened one day when she was shopping when Sue was 2. A black dog befriended her and came home with her from the supermarket. The dog became very attached to Sue and resented the other children in the house. One day the dog attacked the postman and Breda rang the police. When the police arrived, they mentioned that they had been looking for this dog for weeks and took him away. Who ever owned the dog was involved in spiritualism at a high level and this evil unknown to them had transferred from the dog to Sue and also her family. The priest arranged to have a deliverance ceremony for Sue, but the other members of the family were affected also and needed prayer. Another deliverance ceremony was carried out in their home 3 weeks later and all is at peace now. Sue is also now a changed person with love for everybody.

Man From The Orient

A granny flat was added to a new house in the west of Ireland and as it turned out Granny never got to live in it. It was then rented to various people with no problems. A man from the Orient moved in with his partner and would perform some spiritual exercises in the house with an idol. They lived there for quite some time. After they moved out, there was an awful smell in the apartment and the owners weren't able to get rid of the smell to rent it. It turned everybody away. We prayed about it and she was to have the house blessed, a mini-exorcism performed and Mass celebrated in it. This was all carried out very shortly afterwards by the local priest and all problems ceased.

Uneasy Feeling in House

Breda lives in Derry and for a number of years, has been experiencing a weird or uneasy feeling in her house. If her friends stayed over they would experience it too. No matter how much they turned up the central heating, the house was always cold. On one occasion, she saw 'a being' come down the chimney and out the door, which terrified her. When I prayed to Our Lady I received direction that a lost soul was creating the problem and it involved a murder a long time ago. I asked her to contact the local priest who came and blessed the house. It made no difference. Eventually Breda had to leave the house because of the turmoil. I felt the rite of exorcism was needed to solve the situation. As there was no one with that gift available locally, two priests with that ministry from outside the area, were contacted to perform the rite in their own churches. Breda is back living in the house again and there's a great sense of peace and warmth now.

Satanic attack on the Curate

Fr Thomas contacted me and during the conversation he mentioned he had great devotion to Our Lady and did an hours adoration every day. The previous day he passed a shrine to Our Lady on the roadside, stopped the car and said some prayers at the shrine. When getting back in the car, he encountered an evil attack, which terrified him. He was too afraid to go back to his parish and stayed at his original home place that night instead. When going to bed, he had another attack and he ran to his mothers' room and put his arms around her. He was completely terrified. I suggested he pray for protection (Psalm 91) and also the prayer of protection at the end of this book against curses and evil. I have since met Fr Thomas and he has had no attack since.

I met a woman from Donegal. She had various evil experiences, but during one situation her car was lifted and bumped along the road as she was driving. A terrifying experience for her.

I became aware of another evil situation on the Kilkenny/Tipperary border involving a young married couple that had moved into a new house and were traumatised on a daily basis. There was an awful smell in their new house, lights on in the house when they came home from work or coming on of their own accord and witnessing ugly humanlike figures circling the house several times and a general uneasy feeling especially for the young bride. I visited the house and spent 2-3 hours praying there. The whole site where the house was built was affected. During the famine, the landowner of the time had an arrogant attitude to the plight of the starving people of the area and did nothing to help them. He obviously turned out to be a lost soul. They contacted their parish priest to get permission to organise an exorcism and Mass. 6-7 people prayed over a few days before and during this ceremony that lasted 2 hours. This was carried out and there has been no problem there since.

Builder Involved In Spiritualism

Joan and Ciaran bought a second-hand house and decided to have it renovated. All the main work was done and they employed a man and his helper to do some finishing work. When he arrived Joan was very disturbed by this mans' presence. While he was there, everything seemed to go wrong in the house and nothing seemed to work out. Joan and another worker started getting physically affected. Joan contacted me and we prayed. This man was in contact with someone who was involved in spiritualism at a very high level. As a result he had a negative affect on everyone he came in contact with. I advised her to go to a priest and have an exorcism carried out which she did. After she was prayed with, the effect only lasted 24 hrs. She eventually had to be prayed with 4 times before it made a difference. After two weeks and a Mass celebrated in the house, it was totally cleared.

Uncomfortable Feeling In The House

A lady called me from Tipperary. For about 12 years, she had an uncomfortable feeling in her house, which seemed to be always there. It wasn't a soul looking for help, but an evil situation. A person who had a connection with the house or possibly lived in the house at some stage was causing the problem. Through prayer and asking questions we got to find out who it was. I advised her to have the house blessed, an exorcism performed and Mass celebrated in it. A few days prayer and Masses were celebrated prior to this ceremony. That was duly carried out and I was present at this one. I felt a great peace come over the house when the ceremony was over. She phoned me a few days later to say she couldn't get over the dramatic change in the house as a result.

OCCULT/TAROT CARDS/OUIJA BOARDS

Shadow in Hallway

Denise is in college. When she came home at the weekends, it wouldn't be unusual to notice a shadow or presence in the hallway of the house. It was very real. The family prayed for a few days and I received direction. A woman, who wore a shawl, lived about a mile from their house (in a particular direction) and had died 30 years ago. The house is now in ruins but Denise's Dad confirmed he knew the lady. This lady was involved in evil deeds or occult with neighbours. A series of Masses and Stations of the Cross were celebrated for her soul.

Tarot cards

Molly from Waterford is an elderly lady who often rings me. She had become friends with a young girl, Louise whom she met in a shopping centre. There was something about her personality that bothered Molly. After a few days prayer, I received direction that Louise was involved in the occult either through a Ouija Board or tarot cards. Molly arranged for me to speak to Louise. When I spoke to her, she hadn't been involved in the Ouija Board however she had used tarot cards with another girl from her last job and was still affected by this. I recommended that she needed to be prayed with and Louise made the subsequent arrangements.

12 Year Old Girl Possessed From Using the Ouija Board

In April 2008 I was contacted by Carmel from Kilkenny about a grotesque smell they had in their house for about 2 years. It was so bad, she couldn't invite anyone into the house. Carmel's 12 year old daughter Donna had a friend Sheila also 12, who was fascinated with using the Ouija Board to such an extent that she started to act very odd. Sheila would lose her voice and start to draw grotesque figures. Her body would go into spasm. Once, when someone went to hold her, she seemed to have the strength of 5 people and tossed this person aside as if she was a doll. On another occasion, she tried to commit suicide. A deliverance ceremony (which lasted 5 hours) was carried out on Sheila and her family. They were completely delivered at this time and they have not been affected since. Somehow, Carmel's family (who had been instrumental in clearing the evil) was also affected through the smell in their own house. A Mass and deliverance ceremony was carried out at the beginning of May and removed 95% of the smell. A second deliverance ceremony was carried out a week later and the house is now back to normal.

Ouija Board Story In London -- November 2002..

My sister took me to visit a man. When she opened the door, a force of evil was coming through so strongly that I had to back away. I told her that somebody in the house was involved in something evil, but it wasn't the man we were going to visit. As I looked in through the open door, I saw a young man, looking out through an inside door and felt the problem was connected with him. We didn't enter the house at that time, but closed the front door and walked up and down the footpath outside and prayed for protection to blessed Michael The Archangel. I felt a strong need to talk to this young man and not the man we had originally decided to visit. We went back to the door a second time and we were able to walk through. He was from the continent. My sister spoke to him and I related all the directions I was receiving. I was guided that he was linked with a Ouija Board, which he denied initially but eventually admitted that he had used it with two friends and moved glasses etc. He was very affected physically as a result of its use. I told him that he needed to have this dealt with. I was given direction not to touch or pray with him. He couldn't understand how I was able to relate all these happenings to him, having never met him before. A Mass was also to be celebrated in the house.

(A lot of young people are not aware of the evil involved in messing around with Ouija Boards and other evil practices).

CURSES

It is a very serious thing to wish evil or maledictions on someone as it can affect individuals or families for generations, if not dealt with.. Sometimes, not all members of the family would be affected. If property is cursed, it doesn't matter who has it...that person could be affected even if they are no relation.

Farm cursed in West of Ireland

Sinead phoned me from her sheep farm in the west of Ireland. They were having a high mortality rate in their older lambs even though they were vaccinated for all diseases. A post mortem was carried out on the lambs and no cause of death could be found. Her husband Cyril, had sold all the remaining sheep and replaced them with new stock. When Sinead first rang me two of the new animals had died also. After a few days prayer to Our Lady, Sinead phoned back. I received direction that a relation of the couple had cursed the farm because of a family dispute. I recommended that the rite of exorcism be performed to solve the situation and advised her what to do. A few months later I met Sinead and they hadn't lost any more animals since. Problem solved!

Three Acres Cursed

In January 2004, Mary contacted me from their farm in Kilkenny. Their farm comprises of very fertile land with a seven-acre field at the back of their house. In one part of this field (about 3 acres) the crops consistently failed to grow to maturity even though there were soil tests etc. The soil was the exact same as the land surrounding it. In the growing season it was very noticeable. Mary prayed to Our Lady for a few days and I received direction that in the 1800's this portion of land had been rented. A major dispute broke out with the owner and the tenant cursed the land as a result. I recommended that they celebrate a Mass in the house to deal with curse on the field. I was in contact with Mary recently and the three acres are blooming like the rest of the field now.

Lorry Driver

Stephen is a lorry driver, married with four children. In recent years, he has been involved in some horrific freak accidents, which he was not the cause of. There were six major accidents with the lorry. On one occasion he met a jeep, which came straight for him and in order to avoid it the lorry tipped sideways in to a ravine. The lorry was a right off, but he escaped. Another time, a man driving a car ran into him and killed his wife who was in the passenger seat. He must have fallen asleep. There were others, which I won't mention here, but the last incident in 2003 Stephen met a cattle truck and trailer. As he approached, the cattle truck jack-knifed and Stephen crashed in to the face of the trailer. He suffered horrific injuries and as a result he spent along time in hospital. Also his daughter suffered a serious accident when she was four. Stephen couldn't understand why all this was happening to him and he rang me. I asked him and his family to pray a 9 day Novena of the Rosary to Our Lady and when finished I received direction that the male lineage on his fathers side were cursed as a result of some incident in the past and he was the one suffering at this time. The rite of exorcism was arranged for his whole family in connection with this curse. He's now back working again and no problems.

Dead Horses

Sheila contacted me about a problem they were having on their farm. They had lost 5 horses between November 2003 and April 2004. A post mortem was performed and no reason could be found for the deaths of the animals. However all the horses died in a particular field on the farm. A botanist was employed to investigate if there were any poisonous plants growing and nothing was found. I asked Sheila to do a Novena to Our Lady and I received direction that there was a dispute in the 1800's about tenancy rights and this particular field seemed to be cursed and anyone who would use it. There was also a murder nearby linked with this dispute. Sheila said neighbours often commented about the figure of man standing at a gateway near the farm. The person responsible for the murder needed to be prayed for and the rite of exorcism was arranged and carried out shortly after.

4 Curses on Farm in Tipperary

In 2006, I was contacted by Philip in Tipperary who was having high losses of livestock and other unusual occurrences on his farm. He had animals ready to go to the factory, but they lost all their flesh within a few days and they became unsuitable for sale. On a few occasions he had animals read to go to the factory and the arrangements were cancelled at the last minute etc. On another occasion, he lost all stock because of a disease problem. That year all grass was cut for hay and saved in very good weather conditions. Sometime later when the hay was stored in the shed, water started to run from under the hay, yet the hay wasn't damp. He had a Mass celebrated and this problem ceased. After praying, I was told that a curse had been put on his grandfather who had originally married into this farm in the early 1900's. He had bought cattle which had been ceased for rent. Philip was able to confirm through archives that 4 families in that area had stock ceased for rent. The previous owners cursed whoever would get the cattle. His grandfather was a progressive man and bought 60 acres of adjoining farm and he also had an interest in horses. He died suddenly at the horse show in Dublin as a young man, leaving behind his wife and a family of 5. Nothing happened to the farm while he was alive. The oldest Paul, who was 19, took over the farm. He sold one of the horses and bought cattle in lieu with the price. All the cattle that he bought died. Other problems started happening and nothing seemed to go right. Eventually Paul got sick and subsequently died in his early 20's. The second oldest in line took over the running of the farm and the problems continued. We had a Mass and deliverance ceremony (no 1) to clear the curse placed on Philips grandfather. The problems on Philip's farm continued but not to the same extent. We prayed for further direction. The 60 acres that had been bought by his grandfather had been ceased by the banks. The owner had serious debt problems and had cursed him for buying the land. We had a second Mass and deliverance for the second curse. Things greatly improved but something was still not right on Philips farm. We prayed for further direction. A workman on the farm had a dispute with those in charge, possibly Philips father, and he cursed the family. A third Mass and deliverance was carried out and the situation improved further but not 100%. We prayed again. Philip's grandmother married again some years later after her husband died however there was a second admirer. This man was so jealous of her getting married that he too cursed the family..curse no 4! After having a 4th Mass and deliverance ceremony all curses have now been cleared and things have reverted to normal.

African Priest Cursed by Grandmother

An African priest came to visit me on one of my annual visits to London. He was in Rome furthering his studies, but found it difficult to concentrate and learn. This was very unusual as he was always top of his class from the time he started his education. Now he was finding it almost impossible to learn. I prayed with him with others and I was directed that someone in his immediate family had been involved in spiritualism. He told me that when his mother (who was non-Christian) married his father (catholic), her mother was very upset and cursed her. He was being affected by this curse and this subsequently affected his studies. We advised him to get a deliverance ceremony carried out.

Farm in Cork - 2007

Julie contacted me about a series of problems they were having on their farm. Her father-in-law, Jim bought 40 acres of adjoining land privately from their neighbour Paddy, in 1965. Paddy's partner, Sally was not aware of the sale at the time. When Sally found out later that the property had been sold, she was very angry. One day Sally came to one of the fields where Jim and his son were working. She was highly annoyed and vented her anger to Jim for buying the land and knelt down in the field and cursed him and his family. Soon afterwards, one of Jim's four sons was killed in a tractor accident in the same field. One year later, Jim himself died of a heart attack, again in that field. They family were well aware of Sally cursing them. They eventually sold that land, but the tragedies continued on the farm. Subsequently two more sons died including one by suicide. The farm had a lot of serious losses with stock over the years. All of these tragedies happened as a result of Sallys curse. Sally needed to be forgiven and prayed for. A deliverance ceremony was subsequently carried out on the farm.

Twister & Fire 2008

Mairead contacted me from Cork. Her family too were having problems on their farm. A freak twister took the roof off all their farm sheds in December 2006. The roofs were carried some distance away including damaging the family house. Toys and other articles from the sheds were sucked up and were found in adjoining fields. No other property in the area was affected. Mairead said, it looked like a bomb site. In early 2008, Mairead woke at 2am one Sunday morning to see sparks flying past her bedroom window. The whole farm yard was ablaze. Diesel tanks in the yard had exploded and had set fire to everything around; sheds, farm implements, their jeep, tractors, trailers, horse boxes etc. Only two farm implements escaped. Animals were burned in the fire too and others suffered from smoke inhalation but later recovered. It was investigated by the Gardai and the insurance company and they came to the conclusion that they diesel tanks had been hit by lightening. The family house luckily escaped. After getting the family to pray for direction, through Our Lady to Jesus, I felt it was a curse situation. The family originally bought the farm in the 1930's. Through prayer I felt that the previous family had problems. They ran into a lot of debt and owed money to various people. This was confirmed by a 90 year old neighbour who knew the previous family and the trouble they had got into. The farm was sold because of debt and a couple of the people who were owed money, cursed the farm and the owners. This curse stayed on the farm and affected the current owners. A deliverance ceremony was carried out on the farm in April 2008 and the people who cursed the farm were forgiven and prayed for.

Male Members of Family Affected by Curse

I gave a talk at the Padre Pio Shop in London in 2006. I met an Irish woman who told me that there were 6 in her family who were all married. A male member in each of their families were either killed or seriously injured in an accident. She came from a farming background in Co. Offaly. Many years before, someone had a dispute with her father over the sale of a cow. Through prayer, I felt that the father was innocent, but this person was dissatisfied and cursed him. The fatalities and accidents were as a result of that. A deliverance ceremony was carried out for this situation.

Farm in Wexford

In February 2008 I was contacted by Pat from Wexford about unusual fires on their farm and house. A fire started in their hayshed and the shed and contents were burned. The shed was replaced but a year later, damp straw went on fire in the new shed. Then their family car went on fire when they were driving along the road one day. A fire mysteriously started in their bathroom in a box of clothes another day. I asked him to pray through Our Lady to Jesus and it turned out that there was a dispute between a landlord and tenants in the land agitation of the early 1800's. Pat confirmed that the family had acquired land from a local estate during land division and I felt through prayer that there was a connection with the fires. Some of the tenants connected with the estate had burned property belonging to the landlord and he in turn cursed them. The tenants had to be forgiven for the damage they caused to the landlords property and a deliverance ceremony had to be arranged to clear the landlord's curse on the tenants. Pat duly looked after that.

Evil can present itself in different ways and sometimes appears in the form of rats or mice.

Evil Mice

Cait called me in May 2008 from London. She had an apartment which was rented to two ladies. One lady had her boyfriend over regularly. Cait always felt uncomfortable around him. They eventually left and Cait's daughter moved in to the same apartment with her husband and three small children. The children seemed to be very unsettled from the beginning and suddenly mice started to appear running up the legs of the kitchen chairs, in the presses and all around the house etc. They couldn't understand where the mice came from and it caused a lot of distress in the house. Through prayer I was directed that the boyfriend was involved in spiritualism at a high level and these were not real mice, but evil spirits in the form of mice. A Mass and deliverance ceremony was carried out, and the problem continued, but not to the same extent. A second Mass and deliverance ceremony was carried out two weeks later, and the problem has now ceased. There is a totally peaceful atmosphere in the house and the mice have since disappeared.

Infestation of mice in two new houses

In March 2008, Kate contacted me about an infestation of mice in their new home and also Brian (her brother-in-law's) house. Kate's husband Tom and his brother Brian work together. I asked her to pray through Our Lady to Jesus for direction. I was told that two people from Eastern Europe who worked with Tom & Brian were involved in spiritualism. Because of their contact with them, they became affected by this evil (the mice). A deliverance ceremony was carried out on both houses to block the evil coming from their colleagues.

Abortion Clinic

October 2007. I was contact from London by Mary. There was an uncomfortable feeling in the house and her daughter was prone to getting injured, sometimes at home but mostly when she went out, e.g. twisting her ankle or some other minor injury. Mary's house then became infested with rats. They even seemed to be coming out of the sewers. She contacted the council and they dealt with the problem, but shortly afterwards, they returned again and she was in an awful state. I asked Mary to pray to Our Lady through Jesus over the next 24 hours and call me back. I was directed that it was an evil situation. They house that they lived in was previously owned by a lady doctor. In the 1930's & 1940's she had carried out a lot of illegal abortions in the house. A mini abortion clinic. The doctor and those helping her needed to be prayed for and the babies baptised. Mary organised a Mass, deliverance and baptismal ceremony in the house, which was carried out by Fr. Jim. Every part of the house was blessed. The rats disappeared and to date they haven't returned and her daughter hasn't received any injuries since. There is now a peaceful atmosphere in the house.

Illegal Abortion Clinic

On one of my many visits to London I was taken to a house. The house is divided into apartments. One afternoon, the caretaker entered the front door and turned around to close it. He wasn't able to close it, as a force seemed to be preventing him and as he tried to push the door closed something else was keeping it open and he got very frightened. He reported it to the landlord. I met the caretaker on arriving at the house and we stood in the hallway and got his account of the situation. I was then drawn to one of the doors leading from the hallway and I entered the apartment with his permission. Every time someone moved into this particular apartment, something odd seemed to happen to them after a short space of time. They would move in as genuine, very nice and sound people and after some time would become difficult to deal with and seemed to develop all types of problems. The caretaker was staying there when I arrived. We said some prayers and it was revealed that it had been used as an illegal abortion clinic, some years back. I was lead to the front part of the room, at the window, where the operations took place.

Direction: All the babies that were killed (30) were to be baptised and the people involved were to be prayed for.

I was taken to another room in the house, where a man staying there had numerous problems. There were many incidents eg he would often wake up at night and feel as if someone was lying on top of him. We prayed there and it was revealed that this particular part of the house, at another stage, was used as a brothel.

Direction: A Mass was to be celebrated in the house and every part of the house inside and outside, to be blessed with Holy Water that contained Blessed Salt.

Abortion Clinic Near My Sister

An abortion clinic was set up in a private house in Cricklewood some years ago, near where my sister lived. Every time I passed this place in the car, I would get very physically affected because of what was happening inside. The clinic closed in 2000, but I was still affected when I passed by. Last year I went there and walked up and down outside to pray for direction.

Direction: There were a lot of babies that lost their lives there and needed to be baptised. (An understanding priest was contacted to look after this). I have no problem here since.

Leak in the Ceiling

A South American woman living in London contacted me about a serious problem she had in the house. Articles around the house were being continuously moved, her money, clothes and personal items from one place to another. She often saw a rat running up the stairs, but didn't know where it came from or where it went to. She had a few different priests in who prayed and blessed the house, but the problem remained. I briefly prayed with her over the phone and felt evil was at play. I got her to pray as usual through Our Lady to Jesus. I asked her, when it had started and if she was aware of anyone who had come into the house. Two years previous, she had a water leak in the bathroom which came through the ceiling above and caused a lot of damage. She employed two men to repair the damage to her satisfaction. After they left all these things started happening. One of the men had been born in London, but his parents came from the eastern part of the world. Through prayer, I was told that he was the one causing the problem. He was involved in evil at a high level. She had a deliverance carried out by an official exorcist. It's being currently dealt with.

JEALOUSLY

Jealously can cause huge problems! People can suffer terribly as a result of others jealously or envy. It can cause blockages in the workplace, family situation, with neighbours, schools etc. usually because someone is more progressive or talented than they are and this can have an adverse affect.

Train Driver

Before Christmas 2007, I was contacted by Clare who was very upset. Her brother Tim, who is a train driver for 10 years has been involved in numerous accidents when driving the train resulting in the deaths of 4 people. She was concerned why all of this was happening to him. I briefly prayed with her and I felt it was an evil situation. I asked her to pray more and call me back. The direction I was given through Our Lady was that when he applied for the job, two others also applied. One was very jealous of Tim and was so highly annoyed over it that he cursed him getting the job. The accidents and fatalities were as a result of that. Tim was able to confirm the direction I had received in prayer. Clare organised a deliverance ceremony for Tim and to forgive the person responsible.

Waste Collection in the Midlands

I was contacted by Siobhan in early 2008. The family, involved in the waste collection were experiencing unusual fires in vehicles and trucks belonging to the company. Fires would mysteriously start in trucks, cars and vans but never in the petrol tank or engine. It was always inside in the passenger area, even with doors and windows locked. At the end of 2006 the whole plant went on fire and all machinery burned including some of the waste. That was all replaced and at the end of 2007 they had another big fire. They never found out how the various fires started or the source. One van was only 2 months old. Through prayer I was directed that her husband Ben had been cursed over the property as someone was jealous of him. Siobhan had a deliverance ceremony to clear the curse and to protect the property in the future from this evil source. There has been no fire or upsets since.

Jealously in Donegal

Peg rang me in Spring 2007 from Donegal. They were losing mature lambs on a continuous basis from their farm and they had been treated for all known diseases prior to this. The vet could find no answer for their deaths. She also told me that the family were involved in construction and had recently bought new property. I got her to pray for the situation. I was told that there was somebody in the area who was jealous of their progress but she wasn't aware of anyone who might be jealous of them. Peg made arrangements with the priest to have a deliverance ceremony to block the jealousy that was causing all the deaths to the lambs. On the day of the deliverance ceremony, there were five other people there also. The priest prayed 'generally' for all 6 people but didn't make any reference to their 'individual situations'. Two weeks later she called to say the lambs were still dying and through prayer I knew it still wasn't 'specifically' dealt with. She arranged another ceremony which she attended on her own especially for the lambs. At the end of March 2008 she called to say that there were no deaths since.

Bull Dead

In March 2008, Angela contacted me as unusual deaths were happening on their farm. A few days previous they found their bull dead in the shed. Other animals had died in unusual circumstances. I asked her to pray for the situation through Our Lady to Jesus, and the direction I got was that someone was jealous of her husbands' progress. He was a good farmer! It turned out to be her brother-in-law. It was then that she realised, every time he visited the farm, they had a fatality and he always wanted to go look at the animals. Angela had a deliverance ceremony arranged to block the jealousy and if possible try and prevent him from checking the animals when visiting.

Uncle Jealous of Nephew

Tara contacted me. It wasn't unusual for her family to come up against various obstacles connected with her husband and the family in general. Things never seemed to work out right for them. One step forward and two steps back. We prayed about it and I was directed that someone was jealous of her husband and the family. She thought about it and worked out that it was her husband's uncle who seemed to question everything they did. They arranged a deliverance ceremony to block the jealousy coming from him.

WITCHCRAFT

Spiritualism - Snake In Bed

A lady, whose ancestors were originally from Africa, called me from London. This lady was Roman Catholic. There were a lot of disturbances of all sorts, in her house. I asked her to pray a Novena to Our Lady for direction and reminded her also to pray for Our Lady's intentions. When the Novena was complete it was revealed that there were a lot of deceased people connected to her family that needed prayer. She carried this out as requested. Sometime later she called again to say there had been another experience in the house. It felt as if a snake was crawling under her bedclothes. She was very frightened and wondered if it was connected with the previous incidents. We prayed over the phone and the message I received was that some of her ancestors had been involved in witchcraft in Africa, which is normal practice in a lot of places there. She didn't know anything of this.

Direction : Prayer and more Masses were to be offered for this situation and she was to use Holy Water (with Blessed Salt) extensively around her apartment. (She has had no problems since)

African Priest Having Problem Celebrating Mass

In July 2005 I was contacted by a priest from London, who had been recently ordained in Rome. He was doing holiday duty for another priest in the London area. He found this book 'Please Pray for Us...' in the house and felt I could help him as he was having unusual experiences. When he walked up the Altar to celebrate Mass, he came under tremendous pressure and would find it difficult to speak and would be perspiring heavily. There were 3 weddings booked in the parish for the following week and he was concerned that he wouldn't be able to carry them out. I prayed with him over the phone and felt there was evil involved. I asked him if anyone in his family or ancestors were involved in witchcraft and he didn't know. I felt that he was affected by someone in his family and I advised him to contact a certain priest who was in the deliverance ministry in the London area. He contacted the priest later that night and they prayed together over the phone. The following morning, he was able to celebrate mass without any hindrance. They met later that week and the priest performed a deliverance ceremony with him in person. This man has come to Ireland and I've met him twice since and there are no problems now. He's a free man.

Family Home Built on Sacrifice Site

I was contacted by Fr. John from Co. Down in August 2005. A parishioner was having a serious problem in their new family home (parents and 5 children). On St Stephens Day 2004, someone visiting the house saw a 'strange female figure' appearing in the house. A few days later, this figure 'appeared' again. Not long afterwards, a man started to appear dressed as a monk in a black habit and always with his head down. The both continued to appear regularly (mostly around 4pm) in the bedrooms, kitchen, outside the house and all members of the family had seen them at one point or another. Once, while one of the children was doing his homework, the kitchen table suddenly shot across the floor and left a scrawl across his copy book. They used to have a prayer meeting every week with the bible displayed on a stand. The bible would regularly fly off the stand on to the floor, to be replaced again by the family. Their 2 year old was put to bed but was found on the landing in the morning. Their 12 year old went to bed as usual one night and also woke up on the landing and didn't know how he got there. Incidents like these happened regularly and the family was so scared, that they would leave the house and on one occasion they stayed with friend for a whole week. Fr. John was very concerned about this family and asked the father to ask the 'figure' who he was and what he wanted. When the figure next appeared he was asked who he was, but the figure gave no reply. When the figure was asked what he wanted, he replied, "I want you"! Fr. John contacted his bishop and several Masses were celebrated in the house. The situation would temporarily improve, but would then start all over again. I prayed with Fr. John and was directed through Our Lady that evil was at play. Through further prayer, I was told that the house was built on a sacrifice site that was used over 400 years ago. The two people appearing were part of a group of 9-10 local people who were involved in satanic sacrifice at this site and were now lost souls. It was decided that a deliverance ceremony would be carried out. In preparation for this, a novena of 9 Masses was celebrated and Fr. John also prayed The Stations of the Cross with the family each night during the novena. Others prayed too. A priest in the deliverance ministry and myself travelled to Co. Down in mid October 2005. Mass and a deliverance ceremony were performed in the afternoon and the following day a further ceremony was carried out. The lady stopped appearing after the ceremony and up to December 2005, there was no further disturbance. The 'monk' started to reappear occasionally, but didn't cause any upset like before. Several deliverance Masses were celebrated and this cleared 95% of the problem. In May 2006 the parents came with us to Medjugorje. They both climbed Mount Krezevac in offering for this situation and the father actually climbed everyday in his bare feet and twice on some days for this situation to clear. When they came back there was no further disturbance and everything has been fine since. The penance involved in climbing the mountain, cleared the last 5% of the remaining evil.

Lady from Ghana

I was giving a talk in London in 2005. After the talk we had a question and answer session and one young lady (Sharon) mentioned that she couldn't pray the rosary unless she put the crucifix in her mouth. When she got up to go to Mass on a Sunday, there was a force holding her in the bed, so she couldn't get out of it. While speaking with me, she became very disturbed and her body became agitated. I felt that this could get worse and frighten the people present. I asked everyone present to stand up and we prayed St Michael's prayer repeatedly for about 6 minutes and she didn't get any worse. I spoke to her and advised her to attend a deliverance ceremony and that she would need to be prayed with more than once. I asked the other people present to pray the Stations of the Cross everyday for her. About 4 or 5 people took on that task. Every few weeks, Sharon would ring me and I would know she was progressing but still not delivered. It took about 6 months in prayer and she phoned me one day to say she had just been with the official exorcist from the Diocese of Westminster and she felt she was free. When I prayed with her again, I felt everything was dealt with. She rang me recently again in 2008 and we tried to find out where the evil had come from. We prayed for everyone connected with her life and it stemmed from her father whom she had never met. This had come through the bloodlines as has happened in other situations.

Witch's Sacrifice Site

I was contacted in July 2002. For a number of years, a cleaner in a big manufacturing business in the South East of Ireland, always had an uneasy feeling about the place where she worked. She and other people had various unusual experiences there, which she knew weren't right. One day at work, she was catapulted through a door and was pushed to the ground, which was witnessed by a colleague. She felt very frightened. Management were made aware of this situation. She shared this confidentially with a friend and was anxious to have something done about it, as she wouldn't be able to continue there. Her friend contacted me. This was the first time I had been contacted about a situation like this and I questioned him as to why he thought to ask me! He said he was lead to ask me though prayer. We completed a Novena of the Rosary to Our Lady for direction and what I got, was that there was an evil situation there. They asked me to visit the premises, which I did and met the people concerned. We prayed to Our Lady for two hours on the premises and I received two foolscap pages of directions! It was revealed to me that the factory was built on a witches' sacrifice site, which was in existence over 350 years ago. There was a lot of human sacrifice. I was told over a period of time, there were about 25 people involved in these sacrifices, who still had a very strong presence on this site and who are now lost souls. They were to inform their bishop of what was happening and what steps needed to be done to deal with the situation. I went with them to this meeting. A priest was to be appointed to carry out the Rite of Exorcism on the premises and have Mass celebrated. They met their Bishop and that was arranged after some time. Up to the time of the ceremony, strange things were still happening. The exorcism ceremony was arranged for July 2003 and was duly carried out. About 15 people prayed over nine days in preparation before this ceremony took place. They also prayed during the ceremony because prayer is the only thing that will defeat the evil. That ceremony, at which I was present, included the rite of exorcism, blessing the premises and Mass. This lasted three hours. There has been no problem there since, only a great sense of peace.

(In my experience the sacrifice sites have been circular , about 16ft wide. They only seem to pose a problem, when a house or dwelling has been built on them. I have come across other situations similar to those above, e.g. African situations where the effects of witchcraft was carried down through the generations, even though they might be very good Christians now. People are not aware that things like this are happening in Ireland and other places).

In preparation for an exorcism, a lot of prayer (Rosary, Stations of the Cross, The Divine Mercy) needs to be said and Masses celebrated for at least a week to 9 days beforehand, especially if the situation is serious. In one situation, the local priest prayed the Stations of the Cross with the family for 9 nights leading up to the exorcism. It is the power of prayer and penance that moves the evil.

Everyone should say prayers of protection against evil every day and especially if you are under attack. Sprinkle Holy Water with Blessed Salt added for further protection. This is very powerful against evil. (Refer to Chapter 10 for useful prayers to prevent attack from evil). This is the one I say:

Prayer Of Protection For Freedom From Curses & Evil

I place myself in the presence of Jesus Christ and submit to His Lordship. I ‘Put on God’s armour so as to be able to resist the devil’s tactics’ (Ephesians 6;10-11). I stand my ground, “with truth buckled around my waist, and integrity for a breastplate...” (Ephesians 6;14). I carry the “shield of faith” to “put out the arrows of the evil one...” (Ephesians 6;16). I accept “salvation from God to be my helmet and received the word of God from the Spirit to use as a sword” (Ephesians 6:17). In the name of Jesus Christ crucified, died and risen, I bind all spirits of the air, the atmosphere, the water, the fire, the wind, the ground, the underground, and the nether world. I also bind the influence of any lost or fallen souls who may be present, and all emissaries of the satanic headquarters or any coven of witches or warlocks or satan worshippers who may be present in some preter-natural way. I claim the blood of Jesus on the air and atmosphere, the water, the fire, the wind, the ground and their fruits all around us, the underground and nether world.

In the name of Jesus Christ I forbid every adversary mentioned to communicate with or help one another in any way, or to communicate with me, or to do anything at all except what I command in Jesus name.

In the name of Jesus Christ I seal this place and all present and all family and associates of those present and their places and possessions and sources of supply in the blood of Jesus.. (Repeat three times)

In the name of Jesus Christ I forbid any lost spirits, covens, satanic groups or emissaries or any of their associates, subjects or superiors to harm or take revenge on me, my family and my associates, or cause harm or damage to anything we have.

In the name of Jesus Christ and by the merits of His Precious Blood, I break and dissolve every curse, hex, seal, spell, sorcery, bond, snare, trap, device, lie, stumbling block, obstacle, deception, diversion or distraction, spiritual chain or spiritual influence, also every disease of body, souls, mind or spirit placed upon us, or on this place, or on any of the persons, places and things mentioned, by any agent, or brought on us by our own mistakes or sins.. (Repeat three times)

I now place the cross of Jesus Christ between myself and all generations in my family tree. I say in the name of Jesus Christ that there will be no direct communication between the generations. All communications will be filtered through the Precious Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Mary, the Immaculate, clothe me in the light and power of your faith. Father, please assign the angels and saints to assist me. Thank You, Lord Jesus, for being my Wisdom, my Justice, my Sanctification, and my Redemption. I surrender to the ministry of Your Holy Spirit, and receive Your truth concerning intergenerational healing. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen

In Ireland there is nothing organised at church level to deal with these situations. It is on the increase in Europe. In former days, there was at least one priest in each diocese who was appointed and trained to deal with evil situations. It wasn't publically known but was always there when needed. A priest in this ministry has to go to Rome to be trained, have a great commitment to prayer and have a support group to help. There should be at least one in each diocese. This does not happen anymore and it is a pity. Anyone performing a deliverance ceremony should have the gift of discernment. If they don't, they need to be accompanied by some who has the gift (i.e. knowing what they are dealing with, when it's cleared or if it needs more prayer). Prayer is the power that clears the evil.

Chapter 6 - Stories from Trips to Medjugorje

During a trip to Medjugorje in September 1990, 14 of us agreed to meet at the bottom of Mount Krizevac at 12 o'clock midday to pray the Stations of the Cross. When we started I experienced a tremendous spiritual power around. We prayed a decade of the Rosary at each Station, plus the other prayers. As we continued I was lead to pray with one member of the group at each Station. As I finished with one person, I would be told who the next person would be. Obviously Our Lady was guiding me during this. We were almost at the top when we met two ladies from Ireland coming down who temporarily joined the group at that Station. I was directed to pray with the younger of the two ladies and she was so touched that she couldn't stop crying. They both turned around and came back up again with us. I was lead to pray with every one of the group on the way up and each one was touched in a powerful way. The people begging on the side of the path were also touched as we went up. That particular pilgrimage lasted 6 hours. It was a fantastic experience for everyone.

In Medjugorje on one particular pilgrimage, our spiritual director had got sick on the way out and wasn't able to come. We felt a little bit lost, but Our Lady took over and at the Apparition each evening (6.40pm) she would request a theme for the following day. One day she requested that we pray for the abandoned souls in purgatory. There were 13-14 in the group and we prayed all day. 4-5 of us went to the old graveyard and prayed for a solid 3 hours. She said she'd let me know the following evening how many had been helped. 10,000 souls were helped by our prayers. On the other days we were asked to pray for peace, troubled marriages and priests.

Bedsocks

Anthony rang me in 2001 and wanted to know if I would visit his cousin Gabrielle in the Tallaght Hospital, Dublin who was very sick with cancer. She was going for an operation the following day and was extremely worried. I agreed to go, even though I had never been asked to do something like this before. When I arrived, there were about 13 people in the ward made up of family and friends. I brought a supply of Rosaries, which I handed out, and we prayed the Rosary including Gabrielle. We first prayed to the Holy Spirit, and then to the 5 sacred wounds of Our Lord, that Jesus would infuse His precious blood into the blood of this woman. As I was going to Medjugorje a few days after, I asked her for a small personal belonging and she gave me her bed sock. I told her we would place the bed sock at the foot of Our Lady's statue at the Blue Cross and we would pray for her there. I asked her family and friends to pray a Novena to Our Lady for Gabrielle's well-being while we were there. When we came back I was taken again to visit her and brought the sock, which we placed under her pillow. She didn't seem that well, was barely able to speak and her cousins were taken aback with her condition. She had deteriorated dramatically. One month later, her recovery had changed dramatically and she seemed quite well. In 2006 I spoke to Gabrielle again and she mentioned that at the time she had cancer everywhere. She has made a complete recovery and as of now, she is in perfect health.

Gabrielle's friend, Joan contacted me some time later. Her husband Michael was also suffering from cancer. I asked her to get the sock from Gabrielle, which she did and placed it under her pillow. She could feel heat radiating through the pillow from the sock. She took it to the hospital and put it under Michael's pillow for one night, while praying a Novena to Our Lady. As of now, June 2003 he is still attending hospital but is extremely well and is out playing golf again.

In Medjugorje, 1994.

We were preparing to go to Medjugorje in May 1994 from London because the war still wasn't over and there were no flights from Ireland. Liam Courtney was a friend of my sister and her husband. 10 years previously he had been diagnosed with cancer of the glands at the age of 30. He received all the treatments of the time and had a successful recovery. He attended his various check-ups over the years and was eventually told not to come back. In 1994 it flared up again and he had lost a lot of weight and was very sick. He refused to go for further treatment because of what he had experienced the first time. The night before we left for Medjugorje I got a direction to take an item of clothing belonging to Liam and to place it at Our Lady's statue at the Blue Cross. We obtained a shirt that had been worn and brought it with us. We had been out there a few days and Our Lady gave me a gentle reminder to bring the shirt to the Blue Cross which we did. We tied it around Our Lady's statue and we prayed a lot for him while we were there. When we came back, he seemed to be on a high, in great form and a changed man. We then told him what Our Lady had directed us to do with regard to his shirt. His sickness disappeared without any further treatment and is still that way today.

This was my first trip back to Medjugorje after the war in 1994. I climbed the Apparition Hill with my sister Kathleen in the afternoon. Because of the crowds on June 25 (Our Lady's anniversary) we decided to sit under a bush at the bottom of the hill. As soon as we sat, Our Lady asked us to pray for a stated intention. As one intention finished we would be asked to pray for another. We spent almost 3 hours praying non-stop as each intention arose. She eventually mentioned that it was time to finish and go to evening devotions.

In Medjugorje, I always know when Our Lady appears to the visionaries. I will always sense Her coming a few seconds in advance. Sometimes She says, 'I'm coming soon' or 'I'm here' and when She arrives I can sense Her presence and I know when She's gone.

On one visit to Medjugorje, I was sitting on the steps of the outdoor altar at the back of the church and Our Lady was to appear on Apparition Hill at 10.30pm. At that particular time, when She appeared, I could see swirling lights like mini fireworks covering the apparition area. It lasted while Our Lady was there.

Our Lady regularly directs me to speak to pilgrims in Medjugorje to give them a message e.g. something that they need to deal with. These could be complete strangers / priests and on one occasion Our Lady asked me to pass a message to a Bishop.

Chapter 7 - Experiences at Holy Communion and Religious Occasions

A priest was celebrating Mass in his neighbour's prayer house three weeks after his ordination. There were about 20 people there. At communion time, the priest received first, and then asked that the rest of us, hold up the host between our first finger and thumb, and that we'd all receive together. I was first to receive the Eucharist. Instantly, it started to pulsate in my fingers as if it was a heartbeat. That lasted until we all received together as directed. (I always feel the power of the Holy Spirit in my heart every time I come back from communion).

During adoration, I feel a great power coming from the Eucharist, especially if the priest goes around the church. When it would face me, I would be hit with a power. It would hit me so powerfully that I would jerk backwards with its strength.

A classmate of mine in school, Jimmy, died from cancer in 1992. I had always kept contact with him through the years. He was a very good living honest man. When he first got sick, I went to see him one night at home. He was in bed and as we chatted, I could feel what seemed to be a great big heart covering his chest and I mentioned it to him. A few months later, when his condition progressed, I went to see him one Sunday at 12pm. While I was there a nun, Sr. Therese, brought him Holy Communion. She asked me not to leave and she started to read some prayers before giving Communion. When she finished, she gave Jimmy Holy Communion and then read some more prayers after communion. After Jimmy received the Eucharist, a tremendous power was coming from his lower chest/tummy area. It was coming out in miniature rays or beams of power from his body and I told him this. A few weeks later, during one of my visits another nun Sr. Kathleen, brought him Holy Communion. His condition had deteriorated rapidly in the meantime and he hadn't been able to receive for about 3 days before that. She broke a particle of the host and put it on the handle of a spoon to put it in his mouth and the same experience happened again. The rays or beams came from his mouth, where the Eucharist had been placed and I mentioned this to him also. He died a few days later.

In a crowd, I would sometimes pick out a priest even though he was in civic clothes and a stranger. I would generally be drawn to the power coming from his right hand, (because most would use this hand to raise the Eucharist).

After Mass I would feel that the priest would be spiritually filled and I'd pick up the increase in spiritual power from him. It would have intensified as a result of the power of the Mass celebrations.

The Saturday night Easter Vigil Mass, when the priest goes around the church with the Easter water, blessing the congregation, is like a powerful spiritual cloud descending on the people. This is the power of the Holy Spirit showering spiritual blessings on everyone. During this time my whole chest would be filled with a tremendous intense pressure and I'd be ready to burst. I'd have to hold my chest tightly during this particular time.

At the consecration, Jesus is most powerful. Put all your petitions to him at this stage. Sometimes the priests rush the consecration too much and it's a pity. It's the most powerful and important part of the Mass. A lot of care and time should be taken at the consecration and it should be performed gently and slowly, with a lot of reverence. The priest should raise up the Eucharist and keep it up for a short while and likewise with the chalice, showing it to all the congregation. That is my personal experience.

I was asked in Medjugorje a few years ago, about receiving Holy Communion on the hand or on the tongue as this person had misgivings about it. He asked me to know if I'd pray to Our Lady for direction on this situation. I said I would and asked him to do the same. The message I received was that the church's teaching allows the option of receiving on the hand or on the tongue, but Our Lady would prefer if we received on the tongue.

A lot of times at Mass, I feel that many old people are very worried about their spiritual well-being. I can pick it up off them.

There was a priest of the Dominican Order, and whenever I encountered him in the church, I used to pick up a concern he had about his spiritual well-being. I was told he was a very devout man. Once at Christmas time, I happened to go to confession in the church and met him in the confessional. He mentioned at the end to pray for him. I said to him, I have been praying for you and you have been very concerned about something in your life, but I said you're all right now. And I told him about the gifts I had been given.

I'd pick up problems priests would have (personal or otherwise) as they would come up to celebrate Mass and I would always pray for that problem at the Mass, especially at the consecration.

The last blessing that the priest gives, at the end of Mass, is also very powerful. So many leave or have already left before the end of Mass, normally at communion time. They don't know what they are missing.

Sometimes, I can tell if the priest is only going through the motions of Mass and not fully tuned in to the spiritual celebration of this great spiritual event. The Mass is the most powerful form of prayer that there is. People should go as often as they can. The bread and wine are changed into the body and blood at the consecration. There was a particular priest who would celebrate the Mass, and I would always see a great darkness around his face and felt that a lot of what he said didn't carry a lot of weight. During one sermon, it looked like he was surrounded by a big bubble, and the message he was relaying was only projecting a few feet. It didn't come from his heart. It was a sign that I was to pray for him, which I still do.

Sometimes when I go to confession, especially in Medjugorje or Knock Shrine, I have been led by Our Lady to go to a priest in a particular confessional. Often, at the end of the confession I have been led to tell the priest about some personal concern he might have or something he had to do with his parish / ministry or somebody in his life.

At a baptism I experience a great spiritual power when the baby is being blessed at the baptismal font. Afterwards the baby is like a little ball of power as it is so filled with Holy Spirit. The first time I had this experience was when my niece christened her son. We went back to the house afterwards for celebrations and everywhere they moved the baby I could sense where he was even if I wasn't in the same room.

This also happens at confirmation. As the celebration progresses, the power of the Holy Spirit surrounding the children and the church continues to build very strongly. I can still sense it in the church even the day after.

I also experience this at a wedding in a church. Once the couple are married and as ceremony progresses I have the same experience as in the other sacraments. Afterwards when everyone is enjoying themselves at the reception I can sense this great spiritual power coming off them. They are so powerfully blessed and very few know that. About 10 years ago I was at a wedding in Co. Laois. Before the priest performed the marriage rites, I saw Jesus appear on the cross about 10ft from the ground in between the priest and couple. It was life size but there were no wounds or blood. His beard was full and dark and he appeared to be about 30. As the priest performed the marriage rites, Jesus leaned over to His right shoulder and looked down over the couple. This lasted about a few seconds. The church was filled with an intense spiritual feeling and I hated coming out of the church after the ceremony ended.

I also experienced this at an ordination as well.

Prayer For The Religious

One morning, at the English Mass in Medjugorje, I was very physically affected by a priest who was on the altar. I felt that I needed to talk to him. The message I was getting was that “he was careless about his priestly duties”. I had intended to meet him coming out from the sacristy at the back of the church, but I was interrupted by another person on the way out and didn’t see him at that time. Sometime later, during that particular day, when I was speaking to somebody, he came around the corner, just where I was standing and immediately I approached him. I told him about my experience of him at Mass and the way Our Lady directs me to people. I spoke to him about the various things Our Lady was concerned about, e.g. his carelessness with regard to his personal priestly commitments. She also itemised the great gifts he had which he wasn’t using, like his personality, his way with old people, and his organisational abilities to help people in his parish. I was speaking to him for quite some time and he listened to everything I said. I said to him ‘it’s not me, it’s Our Lady is giving these directions. I’m only the telephone!’

That afternoon, I was to encounter him again while sitting on one of the seats outside the church. He was passing and he called me. He had been extremely touched by what I had told him and he said everything you have told me is the truth. He said ‘I’m looking for an English-speaking priest to go to confession at the moment to confess my carelessness’ and he asked if he could speak to me again and I said I’d be here for sometime and he could come back again. An hour later he came back and spoke for a long time about his background. He had originally been a banker and had a late vocation. His whole life had been changed in Medjugorje a few years previously when he came as a pilgrim from the US. I have been asked by Our Lady to approach other priests with something they were to do on other occasions.

An evening Mass was being celebrated in a cathedral, in the south of Ireland, April 2002. During the Mass three ladies noticed a small stone coming slowly through the air from the altar. One person thought she was going to be hit with the stone, but it landed on the floor behind her. It didn’t roll, but stayed on the floor where it fell. After Mass, they went to investigate this happening and eventually one person picked it up and put it into the holy water font at the entrance to the cathedral. Mary contacted me. We prayed to Our Lady for direction and I was told that they were to pray for a priest who ministered there about 80 years ago. During a troubled period of our history he caused upset to a named family and as a result left them open to a lot of danger. Mary still holds this stone as a treasure, which I have held! A series of Masses were to be offered up for this man and she discussed this with the local priest who was only too willing to help.

I was recently socialising with my family in London, in a parish club that was originally a church. I was dancing with my sister, and the band was playing where the original altar was. I joked to her that they must be the Altar Boys (referring to the band) and I suddenly got a direction.

Direction: I was to pray for a priest who ministered there about 80 years ago and who had abused his position. Masses and Stations of the Cross were to be celebrated. My sister looked after this!

Angelus Bell

Sharon goes to Mass every morning before she goes to work. It wouldn't be unusual for her to experience something happening in the church as Mass time. One morning, she heard a knocking on the wall and a bell ringing. In April 2005, she contacted me for direction. I asked if the Angelus Bell was rung in their local church and she mentioned it hadn't been rung for years. The only time it was rung was at funerals. We prayed further and I was given direction that the bell was to be rung at least once a day for the Angelus and that someone was to be asked to do it. I was directed to a man who lived about 1/2 a mile from the church in a particular direction who would ring the bell. After further prayer, Sharon mentioned a mans name and I got confirmation that this was the man to be asked. Sharon told her local priest the story. He treated it very lightly at first and with a certain amount of doubt and he didn't think there would be anyone to ring the bell. She amazed him by announcing that she already has someone in mind. He was the husband of the church caretaker. Sharon mentioned that he would have to be paid. When she approached him he was privileged to be asked and was happy to do it without payment! He offered to ring the bell at 6 O'Clock and if he couldn't do it, he promised that a family member would do it instead. The bell tolls every evening for the Angelus since.

(I have had other experiences like this also)

A Franciscan brother rang me to know if any of his ancestors required prayer. Together we prayed Hail Mary's to Our Lady for direction. I received no direction on his family tree, but there were members of the Franciscan community who required help. We were a long time praying on the phone and I was given information from Our Lady about Franciscans in Africa, America and elsewhere. I was able to describe each of them, various aspects of their lives and how long since their deaths. He was able to confirm their identities.

Direction: A lot of Masses were to be celebrated. Some needed a lot more than others and my caller said he'd look after this with great satisfaction.

Special Graces On Church Feast Days

The month of November is a very special month for the Holy Souls. During this month, people should pray as much as possible for their deceased as it is the month set aside by the church and they receive special graces and help at this time. It cannot be emphasised enough, how important it is to pray for the deceased during this month. They are solely dependent on our help and prayers. She asks each day that I pray for different categories of souls. One day She could request prayer for the abandoned souls and the next day it could be those who died in car accidents or tragedies. Another day it could be for suicides. One time She even asked me to pray for mothers who died in childbirth and another time for victims of an earthquake and then sailors lost at sea and other situations.

The Lord gives special graces through Our Lady on all Her feast days but especially on Christmas Day, All Saints Day, Good Friday, The Feast of the Assumption and The Ascension of Jesus. These special graces are given to those who pray to Her, for Her intercession. She asks that we pray 'to Her immaculate heart and the heart of Her divine Son Jesus'. Always pray for Her intentions and your own. Ask Her to intercede through Her Son Jesus in union with the Father and through the power of the Holy Spirit. (She requested on one occasion that I offer up the sufferings of Her Son for my needs. I presume that goes for everybody!)

A mass is not just an earthly celebration, it is a truly heavenly event!

Why Should We Go To Mass Every Day?

“The Mass is the most perfect form of prayer!” (Pope Paul VI)

For each Mass we hear with devotion, Our Lord sends a saint to comfort us at death. (Revelation of Christ to St. Gertrude the Great)

St. Padre Pio, the stigmatic priest, said, “the world could exist more easily without the sun than without the Mass.”

A great doctor of the church, St. Anselm, declares that a single Mass offered for oneself during life may be worth more than a thousand celebrated for the same intention after death. St Leonard of Port Maurice supports this statement by saying that one Mass before death may be more profitable than many after it. Pope Benedict XV said “the Holy Mass would be of greater profit if people had it offered in their lifetime, rather than having it celebrated for the relief of their souls after death.”

Once, St. Theresa was over-whelmed with God’s goodness and asked Our Lord, “How can I thank you?”. Our Lord replied, “ATTEND ONE MASS”

There are more souls released from purgatory during consecration of the Mass than at any time. Christmas is the day of the year when most souls are delivered: then feast days of Our Lord, Our Lady and great saints. Souls receive much grace from prayers offered for them on their birthday, day of baptism, anniversary of death. The more we work for Poor Souls on earth the more others will pray for us, and more merciful will Christ be with us when we’re in purgatory.

Chapter 8 - Animals Feelings

Animals worry, get hurt and suffer pain just like us.

My personal feelings towards animals have greatly changed since I had the following experiences.

In October 1986, I began to sense how animals feel. I would know how they would react to being treated. If cattle were brought in from the farm for an annual round of tests (Brucellosis or TB) from the vet, there would be a wave of fear coming off them in the collecting yard. I could also sense when animals were sick, especially if they were severely affected. I would experience the pain of loss or fret, when a calf would be taken from the mother, especially if it was with the mother for some time. I would feel it from both of them and sometimes if that animal was outside in the dark, I would know where it was standing, even though it wasn't making any noise.

Local boys were shooting up at crows in a rookery a few years ago in the month of May. It was about a mile away and I could sense the fear from the birds even that distance away. I felt a burning sensation on the side of my body that was facing them.

Some swallows' nests were knocked off the end of our house by accident. It was late in the year and we discovered that there were young birds in one of the nests. As the nest fell to the ground, I could feel the pain of fret and worry from the parents as they flew around. The animal world has feelings and suffers in the exact same way as humans do, but they probably get over the trauma quicker. Animals need to be treated with gentleness in every way and they react to that.

Chapter 9 - What People are Supposed to Do

If you have a dispute with someone always try and make up as soon as you can.

It could be with your neighbour, work colleagues, family or friends and God knows there are plenty of them out there. While you could be sorry afterwards for what has happened, if you don't say it or make amends to rectify the situation, it will still be unaccounted for. It's so important to forgive wrongdoings committed against us and sometimes it's not easy. Jesus forgave His crucifiers (Father forgive them, for they know not what they do). Unforgiveness and bitterness are major problems with a lot of us and many souls have spent a long time in purgatory as a result. I am witness to this!

If someone is dying or in danger of death, it's so important to put in as much prayer as possible for them for anything that may have affected them spiritually or temporarily in their lives. This is especially relevant to people who work in the caring or medical profession with old or sick people. If you come across a car accident where people are seriously injured or if someone collapses in the street, you should pray for them. Hand them over to the Lord to look after them and say an act of contrition for them. One prayer before a death is worth many prayers said after.

It is important to pray for deceased relatives and friends. Always pray for people who die suddenly, i.e. suicide, car accidents, sudden death or tragedy of any description e.g. earthquakes or any natural disasters. These people do not have their bags packed and are not ready to go.....but remember.....they won't be lost!

Jealousy is a big problem which is very prevalent in today's society. It is linked to the 10 commandments, "Thou shall not covet thy neighbours' goods". It can happen in any workplace, hospital, school, among family, friends and communities. A jealous person can cause terrible harm and can go to a lot of rounds to create obstacles for the person they are jealous of. We can often be envious of other people's abilities or possessions. If you think someone is jealous of you, pray the prayer of protection on page 95 to block the effect from them and avoid sharing your business or personal details with them.

Go to confession regularly and try and keep your slate (your soul) clean!

(I say to you that even so, there will be joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over 99 just who have no need of repentance: Luke 15: 7)

Attend Mass as regularly as possible, especially our Sunday Mass, in which we are bound to participate. The amount of time we spend in purgatory is shortened by the number of Masses we attend and amount of prayer said in our lifetime.

Recite your daily prayers and do charitable works. Each good work is accounted for against the wrong that you may have done.

The souls that we pray for today, will be us one day.

Chapter 10 - Useful Prayers

Different Ways Of Praying For The Release Of Holy Souls

- Have Masses celebrated
- The Rosary
- The Divine Mercy
- Pray a Novena of the Stations of The Cross (9 consecutive days)
- All personal prayer is helpful, especially at Mass time and prayer time - Any suffering can be offered up

How I Pray The Stations Of The Cross

The reigning pope in 1770 standardised the Stations of the Cross, as we know it today with 14 Stations. Prior to that there were various numbers, even up to 30. It is said that after Jesus was crucified, Mary His mother would have walked the road to Calvary every day for a number of years. As a result of the experience I had in Knock I was praying the Stations of the Cross quite often.

Holy Souls are greatly helped by praying a Novena (nine) of the Stations of the Cross on consecutive days.

If you are praying The Stations at home, I would recommend that you use a crucifix to reflect upon the crucifixion. In most booklets, there are a few lines of readings/scripture after each Station. Our Lady has requested to have the 'Glory Be To The Father' said after each of these little readings, because it represents the Holy Trinity.

Stations Of The Cross

Before each Station

Oh Jesus who for love of me, did bare Thy cross to Calvary
In Thy sweet mercy grant to me, to suffer and to die with Thee

The first Station, Jesus is condemned to death by Pilate innocently and without guilt like a lamb being led to the slaughter

We adore You oh Christ and praise You because by Your holy cross You have redeemed the world
Our Father, Hail Mary & Glory Be

Oh Jesus who for love etc...

The second, Jesus is made to carry His cross, His instrument of crucifixion, His bed of death. What pain, what suffering.

We adore you oh Christ etc...

Our Father, etc...

Oh Jesus who for love etc...

The third, Jesus falls the first time under the weight of the cross. That cross loaded with the weight of our sins and those of mankind, the pain of His wounded knees, His shoulder, the crown of thorns and the suffering weight of the cross.

We adore You etc...

Our Father, etc...

Oh Jesus who for love etc..

The fourth, Jesus meets His distraught and sorrowing mother.

What pain, what hurt and what sorrow and hopelessness at this meeting

We adore You etc...

Our Father, etc

Oh Jesus who for love etc

The fifth, Simon is forced to carry the burden of the cross with Jesus. The burden of our sins and our shortcomings

We adore You etc...

Our Father, etc

Oh Jesus who for etc.

The sixth, Veronica wipes the blood, sweat and tears from the wounded face of Jesus on which he leaves the imprint of His sacred countenance. Veronica a light of comfort in a hostile crowd.

We adore You etc

Our Father, etc

Oh Jesus who for etc...

The seventh, Jesus falls the second time under the weight of the cross. The pain of His hands, His shoulder, the thrust of the spear handle and the suffering weight of the cross.

We adore You etc

Our Father, etc

Oh Jesus who for etc.

The eighth, Jesus speaks to the women of Jerusalem. Those women who had been with Him through His healing and teaching ministry were devastated to see the way He was being mistreated, condemned as the worst type of criminal to die the ignominious death on the cross. He said weep not for me but for yourselves and your children.

We adore You etc

Our Father, etc

Oh Jesus who for etc.

The ninth, Jesus falls the third time under the weight of the cross nearing this cruel journey's end. His energy is almost totally gone from the beatings, the torture, the abuse and sufferings.

We adore You etc

Our Father, etc

Oh Jesus who for etc.

The tenth, Jesus is stripped of His garments

Having reached Calvary, they proceed to crucify Jesus. They tear His clothes from His bleeding body and they drag them off so roughly, that the flesh comes with them.

We adore You etc

Our Father, etc

Oh Jesus who for etc.

The eleventh, Jesus is nailed to the cross. Iron spikes are driven through His hands and feet amidst great torment and pain.

We adore You etc.

Our Father, etc.

Oh Jesus who for etc.

The twelfth, Jesus dies on the cross. After hanging for three hours by His wounded limbs amidst great torment and suffering, He finally gives himself up, when He says to the father, into Thy hands I commend My spirit, and he bows His head and dies. It's over, it's accomplished, it's consummated.

We adore You etc.

Our Father, etc.

Oh Jesus who for etc.

The thirteenth, the body of Jesus is taken down from the cross by Nicodemus and friends and placed in the arms of His most sorrowing mother, who receives it with unutterable tenderness and presses it to her bosom.

We adore You etc.

Our Father, etc

Oh Jesus who for etc...

The fourteenth, the body of Jesus is placed in the tomb by His friends assisted by His sorrowing mother. This is the last time human hands touched Him on this earth.

We adore You etc...

Our Father, etc...

Oh Jesus who for etc.

The fifteenth, Jesus rises glorious and immortal triumphant over sin and death on the third day.

We adore You etc.

Our Father, etc

Oh Jesus who for etc.

And some prayer for the pope's intentions

How to Perform a Baptism

The Catholic Church allows baptisms to be performed by lay people. This prayer can be used for miscarriage, abortion or an unbaptised person.

Pray The Creed, 1 Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be. Then say... I baptise (name) in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Sprinkle Holy Water as you say this. If you don't know the gender of the baby use a dual name e.g. Mary/John or names like Frances/Francis which covers both.

Prayer To St Michael The Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in our hour of conflict. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God restrain him we humbly pray and do thou oh prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God thrust down to hell satan and with him all the other wicked spirits who wander through this world for the ruin of souls.

Prayer Of Protection For Freedom From Curses & Evil

I place myself in the presence of Jesus Christ and submit to His Lordship. I ‘Put on God’s armour so as to be able to resist the devil’s tactics’ (Ephesians 6;10-11). I stand my ground, “with truth buckled around my waist, and integrity for a breastplate...” (Ephesians 6;14). I carry the “shield of faith” to “put out the arrows of the evil one...” (Ephesians 6;16). I accept salvation from God to be my helmet and received the word of God from the Spirit to use as a sword” (Ephesians 6:17). In the name of Jesus Christ crucified, died and risen, I bind all spirits of the air, the atmosphere, the water, the fire, the wind, the ground, the underground, and the nether world. I also bind the influence of any lost or fallen souls who may be present, and all emissaries of the satanic headquarters or any coven of witches or warlocks or satan worshippers who may be present in some preter-natural way. I claim the blood of Jesus on the air and atmosphere, the water, the fire, the wind, the ground and their fruits all around us, the underground and nether world.

In the name of Jesus Christ I forbid every adversary mentioned to communicate with or help one another in any way, or to communicate with me, or to do anything at all except what I command in Jesus name.

In the name of Jesus Christ I seal this place and all present and all family and associates of those present and their places and possessions and sources of influence in the blood of Jesus. (Repeat three times)

In the name of Jesus Christ I forbid any lost spirits, covens, satanic groups or emissaries or any of their associates, subjects or superiors to harm or take revenge on me, my family and my associates, or cause harm or damage to anything we have.

In the name of Jesus Christ and by the merits of His Precious Blood, I break and dissolve every curse, hex, seal, spell, sorcery, bond, snare, trap, device, lie, stumbling block, obstacle, deception, diversion or distraction, spiritual chain or spiritual influence, also every disease of body, souls, mind or spirit placed upon us, or on this place, or on any of the persons, places and things mentioned, by any agent, or brought on us by our own mistakes or sins. (Repeat three times)

I now place the cross of Jesus Christ between myself and all generations in my family tree. I say in the name of Jesus Christ that there will be no direct communication between the generations. All communications will be filtered through the Precious Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Mary, the Immaculate, clothe me in the light and power of your faith. Father, please assign the angels and saints to assist me. Thank You, Lord Jesus, for being my

Wisdom, my Justice, my Sanctification, and my Redemption. I surrender to the ministry of Your Holy Spirit, and receive Your truth concerning intergenerational healing. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Amen

Prayer Of St. Gertrude The Great For The Holy Souls

The following prayer releases many souls from Purgatory each time it is said.

Eternal Father, I offer to thee the most precious blood of Thy divine son, Jesus in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church and those in my own home and within my family. Amen.

Prayer For Daily Neglects

Eternal Father, I offer You the Sacred Heart of Jesus, with all its Love, all its Sufferings and all its Merits.

First To expiate all the sins I have committed this day and during all my life.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son...!

Second To purify the good I have done badly this day and during all my life.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son...!

Third To supply for the good I ought to have done, and that I have neglected this day and during all my life. Glory be to the Father...!

Our Lady asked that if we pray the following prayers for the Holy Souls, so many of them well be delivered.

5 x I believe in God...

1 x Hail Holy Queen...

1 x Our Father...

1 x Hail Mary...

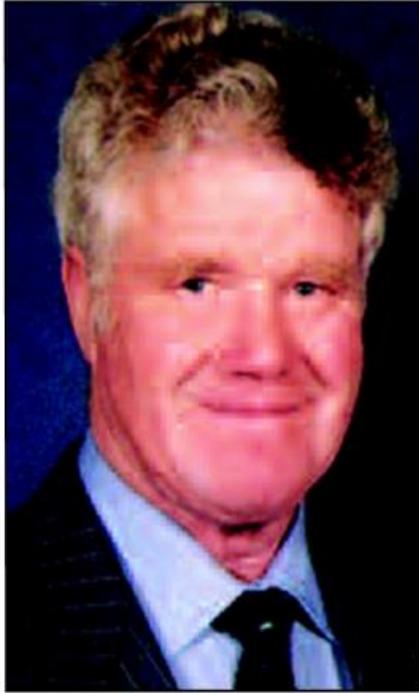

1 x Glory be to the Father

1 x Requiem (Eternal rest grant unto them Oh Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them and may they rest in peace. Amen!)

Every time this is said one soul is released from purgatory.

“Jesus, Mary, I love You Save Souls”.
